Embroideries Marjane Satrapi:

Embroideries Marjane Satrapi, 2005 From the author of the acclaimed comic strip autobiography Persepolis comes this comic book for grown ups a gloriously entertaining and revealing look into the sex lives of Iranian women Embroideries gathers together many of the women in Marjane Satrapi's life her beloved grandmother her mother an eccentric aunt their friends and neighbours for an afternoon of tea drinking and talking And as is only to be expected when a group of women reunite around cups of tea the subjects turn to love sex and the vagaries of men in this case Iranian men As the afternoon progresses these colourful women share their secrets about among other things how to fake your virginity how to escape the husband your family has chosen for you how to enjoy the miracles of plastic surgery and how to take advantage of being someone's mistress By turns revealing and hilarious these are stories about the lengths to which some women will go to find a man to keep a man or just to keep up appearances We also witness tearful confessions and heavy hearted tales of regret and betrayal of unhappy marriages and of young women forced or choosing to marry for all the wrong reasons of their suffering is due to a culture that prizes men above women and makes a woman's worth dependent on her virginity Full of surprises this introduction to the private lives of some very interesting ordinary women also demonstrates brilliantly how much women the world over have in common

Invisibility in Visual and Material Culture Asbjørn Grønstad, Øyvind Vågnes, 2019-06-01 The essays in Invisibility in Visual and Material Culture contribute pioneering and revelatory insights into the phenomenon of invisibility forging new and multi disciplinary approaches at the intersection of aesthetics technology representation and politics Importantly they acknowledge the complex interaction between invisibility and its opposite visibility arguing that the one cannot be fully grasped without the other Considering these entanglements across different media forms the chapters reveal that the invisible affects many cultural domains from digital communication and operative images to the activism of social movements as well as to identity race gender and class issues Whether the subject is comic books photographic provocations biometric and brainwave sensing technologies letters or a cinematic diary the analyses in this book engage critically and theoretically with the topic of invisibility and thus represent the first scholarly study to identify its importance for the field of visual culture

Ladies of Legend Sabbah Blanche, 2022-11-30 T00:00:00+01:00 Eve Snow White Karaba the Sorceress Scheherazade the Little Mermaid the Queen of Sheba From the dawn of mythology to medieval fairytales and today's pop culture these women characters have filled our childhoods and fueled our imaginations But do we know their real stories These ladies of legend have almost always been presented from a male viewpoint Their stories have been used to fuel negative stereotypes and keep women in their place in the subordinate rigid and caricatured roles of evil temptress devoted wife femme fatale jealous stepmother or sweet ingenue But what if the same legends were finally told by women

Graphic Medicine Manifesto MK Czerwicz, Ian Williams, Susan Merrill Squier, Michael J. Green, Kimberly R. Myers, Scott T. Smith, 2020-05-18 This inaugural volume in the Graphic Medicine series establishes the principles of graphic medicine and begins to map the field The volume combines scholarly essays by members of the editorial team with previously unpublished visual narratives by Ian Williams and MK Czerwiec and it includes arresting visual work from a wide range of graphic medicine practitioners The book's first section featuring essays by Scott Smith and Susan Squier argues that as a new area of scholarship research on graphic medicine has the potential to challenge the conventional boundaries of academic disciplines raise questions about their foundations and reinvigorate literary scholarship and the notion of the literary text for a broader audience The second section incorporating essays by Michael Green and Kimberly Myers demonstrates that graphic medicine narratives can engage members of the health professions with literary and visual representations and symbolic practices that offer patients family members physicians and other caregivers new ways to experience and work with the complex challenges of the medical experience The final section by Ian Williams and MK Czerwiec focuses on the practice of creating graphic narratives iconography drawing as a social practice and the nature of comics as visual rhetoric A conclusion in comics form testifies to the diverse and growing graphic medicine community Two valuable bibliographies guide readers to comics and scholarly works relevant to the field The Feminists Julie

Guiol, 2023-01-01 We are all human But for women equality and the right to self-determination are far from being acquired What are the conditions of women throughout the world How have feminist movements been constructed over time How can men be a part of feminism The POCQQ collection deals with current topics with the perspective that allows everyone to form their own opinion Graphic History Richard Iadonisi, 2012-11-30 When it comes to recounting history issues arise as to whose stories are told and how reliable is the telling This collection of fourteen essays explores the unique ways in which graphic novels can aid us in addressing those issues while shedding new light on a variety of texts including those by canonical North American and European writers Art Spiegelman Maus In the Shadow of No Towers Alan Moore From Hell The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen Frank Miller The Dark Knight Returns Chris Ware Jimmy Corrigan Chester Brown Louis Riel and Harvey Pekar Recognizing the global appeal of graphic novels this collection also provides a fresh look at history seen through the eyes of canonical non-Western writers Marjane Satrapi Persepolis and Yoshihiro Tatsumi A Drifting Life and the highly vexed relationship of the West and the Middle East The array of contributors from the fields of art literature history and cultural studies is matched by the array of theoretical perspectives and by the depth and breadth of subjects ranging from the sixteenth-century voyages of Sebastian Cabot to Jack the Ripper from the Chicago World's Columbian Exposition of 1893 to lynching in the early twentieth-century American South and from post-war Japan to the fall of the Shah in Iran Reading Women's Worlds from Christine de Pizan to Doris Lessing S. Jansen, 2011-04-25 In this work

Jansen explores a recurring theme in writing by women the dream of finding or creating a private and secluded retreat from the world of men These imagined women's worlds may be very small a single room for example but many women writers are much more ambitious fantasizing about cities even entire countries created for and inhabited exclusively by women The Apprehensions Lene M. Johannessen, Jena Habegger-Conti, 2021-01-12 Aesthetic Apprehensions Silences and Absences in False Familiarities is a scholarly conversation about encounters between habitual customs of reading and seeing and their ruptures and ossifications In closely connected discourses the thirteen essays collected here set out to carefully probe the ways our aesthetic immersions are obfuscated by deep seated epistemological and ideological apprehensions by focusing on how the tropology carried by silence absence and false familiarity crystallize to define the gaps that open up As they figure in the subtitle of this volume the tropes may seem straightforward enough but a closer examination of their function in relation to social cultural and political assumptions and gestalts reveal troubling oversights Aesthetic Apprehensions comes to name the attempt at capturing the outlier meanings residing in habituated receptions as well as the uneasy relations that result from aesthetic practices already in place emphasizing the kinds of thresholds of sense and sensation which occasion rupture and creativity Such after all is the promise of the threshold of the liminal to encourage our leap into otherness for then to find ourselves and our sensing again and anew in novel comprehensions Gender & Life Narratives Mr. Rohit

Terry Smith, 2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today s multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going
