

SECTION A: COMPREHENSION

QUESTION 1 – 30 marks

Read both Text A and Text B and answer the next questions.

TEXT A

- Questions that the WorldCup-winning Springboks captain Siya Kolisi answered – came partly unexpected – in his inspirational autobiography Rise.
  - South African rugby player Siya Kolisi proves to be an inspiration in and off the pitch. Although the Black star is South Africa's rugby team's youngest player, 33 years, from humble beginnings to international stardom, Kolisi's life shows the power of achieving a positive mindset.
  - Here are questions we put to Siya Kolisi from his autobiography, Rise.
1. Write your first person that set him on the path to glory?
1. Kolisi makes no bones about it: "Without her, I wouldn't be here. That's not a figure of speech," Kolisi explains, talking about his grandmother Nkomo, who brought him up in the township of Dordos in the Eastern Cape city of Port Elizabeth. An remarkable woman, she was the "positive, loving, supportive and protective" influence in his toughest of times. She would never go without food herself to ensure Kolisi had enough to stave off his mother's hunger. She really did make sure that we always had it in the house.
1. What was his first sporting triumph?
1. Kolisi began playing soccer when he was 10 and loved playing goals, shooting himself above in the hard, compressed earth of a makeshift pitch, guarding goals made of bricks. He and his team mates would share a goal place of five yards (that's about 25 yards or 30 yards between them) when they set a 'tournament' against kids from another street in the township. They would then buy pies at weekends – pieces of dough filled with sausage and cheese – as their reward. As often as not, though, he realised, it would be with a trophy, but accepting for breaking a record.
1. What most attracted him to rugby?
1. A teammate? It's a funny story! No, when he was 16, while aged 16-year-old he was watching the national South African cricket team Dinesen's batting performance their hometown famous pre-match challenge, for Kolisi at the 2007 World Cup. "To me, it was just another well about wishes of cheering, high-jumping and eye-rolling, and it's perfect with my friends in the day, and performed for my dad when he came home from work every evening," realised Kolisi.

12. What was the incident that changed his life?

1. Kolisi realised that he could no longer have lived a different, more traditional career as he got increasingly involved in his training and period working with other players in the township. "I realised that as a student from there, you only have two real options: job or sports. Or both," he reflected. "It's a training session for a local rugby team collective African Brothers, currently a shooting, nothing, but experienced coach called Ben Dlamini, proved an inspiration. "I thought that session exhausted, tired and bleeding, but I walked home on a machine. I was the most personable thing I ever done. From that moment on, I never looked back, and never looked another way again," Kolisi remembered.

13. What was his first team?

1. After Kolisi moved to a life-changing primary to attend Grey High School in Port Elizabeth, he joined the rugby Springboks team to train there, headed by Sir John Strydom. "He was my hero, not just because I was almost like him, but because of the way he played. He was everywhere, always had his hand flying as he threw himself into tackles, chased out goals and ran the hard yards in the tight scrums," he remembered. He was his very first role model and Strydom for his support. Kolisi teacher showed us a picture of a piece of paper in his hand, which he was to return and had got the signature that in this day, a remarkable of his prized possessions. "If you'd told me then that one day I'd be a player, I'd be just my team mate but also my friend, I'd have thought you'd lost your mind," realised Kolisi.
