

Paragraph Writing

A paragraph is a group of sentences that expresses a unified idea. There is no set number of sentences in a paragraph. The main parts of a paragraph are the topic sentence, the supporting details, and the concluding sentence. The topic sentence says that the paragraph is about. The supporting details support the topic sentence with details or evidence. The concluding sentence lets the reader know they are at the end of the paragraph. It restates the topic sentence and reminds the reader of the key supporting details.

DIRECTIONS: Look at the picture. Plan to write a paragraph about it by filling in the organizer below.

Topic Sentence. What is the sentence about? What is the main idea you want to tell the reader?
Supporting Details. What details can you give the reader to support the main idea?
Concluding Sentence. Remind the reader what the paragraph was about.

Low-fee Private Schooling and Poverty in Developing Countries Joanna Härmä,2021-01-14 In Low fee Private Schooling and Poverty in Developing Countries Joanna H rm draws on primary research carried out in sub Saharan African countries and in India to show how the poor are being failed by both government and private schools The primary research data and experiences are combined with additional examples from around the world to offer a wide perspective on the issue of marketized education low fee private schooling and government systems H rm offers a pragmatic approach to a divisive issue and an ideologically driven debate and shows how the well intentioned international drive towards education for all is being encouraged and even imposed long before some countries have prepared the teachers and developed the systems needed to implement it successfully Suggesting that governments need to take a much more constructive approach to the issue H rm argues for a greater acceptance of the challenges abandoning ideological positions and a scaling back of ambition in the hope of laying stronger foundations for educational development

The Sexual Violence and Impunity in South Asia research project coordinated by Zubaan and supported by the International Development Research Centre brings together for the first time in the region a vast body of research on this important yet silenced subject Six country volumes one each on Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka and two on India as well as two standalone volumes comprising over fifty research papers and two book length studies detail the histories of sexual violence and look at the systemic institutional societal individual and community structures that work together to perpetuate impunity for perpetrators The essays in this volume focus on Nepal which though not directly colonized has not remained immune from the influence of colonialism in its neighbourhood In addition to home grown feudal patriarchal structures the writers in this volume clearly demonstrate that it is the larger colonial and post colonial context of the subcontinent that has enabled the structuring of inequalities and power relations in ways that today allow for widespread sexual violence and impunity in the country through legal systems medical regimes and social institutions The period after the 1990 democratic movement the subsequent political transformation in the aftermath of the Maoist insurgency and the writing of the new constitution has seen an increase in public discussion about sexual violence The State has brought in a slew of legislation and action plans to address this problem And yet impunity for perpetrators remains intact and justice elusive What are the structures that enable such impunity What can be done to radically transform these How must States understand the search for justice for victims and survivors of sexual violence This volume addresses these and related issues Published by Zubaan      Colorado School Laws Colorado,2019      Investigating Unequal Englishes Ruanni Tupas,2024-05-22 Ruanni Tupas presents rich insights into the inequalities of Englishes and the ways in which these inequalities shape and impact English and multilingual speakers from around the world This edited volume gives a critical take on world Englishes while showcasing for readers the various inequalities in treatment towards the people who speak English differently as well as the injustice in that treatment Research methodologies are explored providing a glimpse into how data are collected and lending a more thorough look into each study and its conclusions Chapters address the geopolitics of knowledge production in the teaching learning and use of English with strong representations from the peripheries of sociolinguistic studies of English English is constructed as a language which enables socioeconomic mobility which is one factor that increases the importance of research into this issue and this book enables researchers to widen their methods of research and apply them to their area of study A valuable text for academic researchers as well as postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students to better understand the linguistic sociopolitical and epistemic inequality in English communication It also provides readers with alternative perspectives on lingua cultural pluralism to unpack social inequalities and hierarchies that exist today      Treaties and International Agreements Registered Or Filed and Recorded with the Secretariat of the United Nations United Nations Staff,2003
