Challenges and Opportunities for Inclusive Development in Ethiopia Rahmato, Dessalegn, Ayenew, Meheret, 2019-03-25 As part of its on going public dialogue program on progress in Ethiopia's development and public policy the Forum for Social Studies is undertaking a project of research and public dialogue on a number of selected topics on the theme of Prospects and Challenges for Inclusive and Participatory Development in Ethiopia The aim is to enable researchers and professionals to present evidence based papers to stimulate debate and reflection This first book in the program looks at the impact of development or lack of it on specific social groups namely women young people and vulnerable groups that should be entitled to decent social care

Revolutionary Struggles and Girls' Education Thera Mjaaland, 2021-07-27 Revolutionary Struggles and Girls Education At the Frontiers of Gender Norms in North Ethiopia argues that at the base of girls poorer performance than boys at secondary school level when puberty has set in is the symbolic violence entailed in sanctioned femaleness Informed by the modesty of Virgin Mary in Orthodox Christian veneration it instructs girls to internalize a holding back which impinges on her self efficacy and ability to be an active learner Neoliberally informed educational policies and plans which have co opted liberal feminism also in Ethiopia do not address hard lived gender norms and the power and domination dynamics entailed when parity between boys and girls in school continues to be the dominant measure for equity Despite women's courageous contribution at a literal frontier during the Tigrayan liberation struggle 1975-91 where they fought on equal terms with men and despite the tendency that girls outnumber boys at secondary level in the present context sanctioned femaleness constitutes a frontier for girls educational success and transition to higher education In fact when teaching learning continues to be based on memorization rather than critical thinking the very transformative potential of education is undermined also in a gendered sense

Starting Life as a Midwife Michelle Gray, Ellen Kitson-Reynolds, Allison Cummins, 2019-04-10 This volume explores the unique challenges midwifery graduates face as they move into practice It identifies the similarities and differences in midwifery education regulation and clinical practice faced by graduate midwives in all continents examining the various support systems available for graduate midwives in many countries and identifying the common strategies formal and informal and approaches that have proved to be effective in supporting midwifery graduates The book volume brings together the experiences of new midwives starting out in registered practice to share the challenges and triumphs during their transition to confident practitioners It identifies explains and details both established and innovative new mechanisms in place to support new midwives in each country and examines the effects the experiences of transitioning to practice may have on future professional practice resilience and sustainability Lack of support during the new graduate transition to practice has been associated with early attrition from the midwifery profession Stress disillusion and horizontal violence have been identified as factors that influence midwifery attrition rates Exploration of the various support mechanisms currently available in different countries may stimulate the sharing of best practices in providing new midwives with transition to practice programmes and generate further research Each chapter is harmonized to facilitate the comparison between countries and the maternity services context is explained using each country's specific legislation regulation and registration of midwives The preparation of midwifery students for qualified practice is outlined to explain how midwifery students are trained and socialized into the profession mentored in their placements and then transitioned to registered midwife status This book appeals to midwives managers educators and newly graduated interested in international midwifery practice Tracing the Consequences of Child Poverty Jo

Boyden, Andrew Dawes, Paul Dornan, Colin Tredoux, 2019-03-27 Available Open Access under CC BY NC licence What matters most in how poverty shapes children's wellbeing and development How can data inform social policy and practice approaches to improving the outcomes for poorer children Using life course analysis from the Young Lives study of 12 000 children growing up in Ethiopia India Peru and Vietnam over the past 15 years this book draws on evidence on two cohorts of children from 1 to 15 and from 8 to 22 It examines how poverty affects children's development in low and middle income countries and how policy has been used to improve their lives then goes on to show when key developmental differences occur It uses new evidence to develop a framework of what matters most and when and outlines effective policy approaches to inform the no one left behind Sustainable Development Goal agenda Global Education Monitoring Report Global Education Monitoring Report Team, UNESCO, 2023-07-26 The 2023 GEM Report on technology and education explores these debates examining education challenges to which appropriate use of technology can offer solutions while recognizing that many solutions proposed may also be detrimental The report also explores three system wide conditions access to technology governance regulation and teacher preparation that need to be met for any technology in education to reach its full potential

Non-State Actors in Education in the Global South Prachi Srivastava, Geoffrey Walford, 2019-10-23 Fuelled by social equity concerns there have been vigorous debates on the appropriateness of certain non state actors particularly those with commercial and entrepreneurial motives to meet universal education goals There are further questions on the relative effectiveness of government and private schooling in delivering good learning outcomes for all Within this debate several empirical questions abound Do students from poorer backgrounds achieve as well in private schools as their advantaged peers What are the relative out of pocket costs of accessing private schooling compared to government schooling Is fee paying non state provision affordable to the poorest households What is the nature of the education market at different levels What are the relationships between different non state actors and the state and how should they conduct themselves The chapters in this volume present new empirical evidence and conduct critical analysis on some of these questions This book was originally published as a special issue of the Oxford Review of Education      Dissertation Abstracts International,1970
