Great Gatsby Textual Intervention:

Teaching English Language and Literature 16-19 Furzeen Ahmed, Marcello Giovanelli, Megan Mansworth, Felicity Titjen, 2020-10-28 This book offers both a scholarly and practical overview of an integrated language and literature approach in the 16-19 English classroom. Providing a comprehensive overview of the identity of the subject, it outlines the pedagogical benefits of studying a unified English at post-16 and provides case studies of innovative classroom practice across a range of topics and text types. Including contributions from practising teachers and higher education practitioners with extensive experience of the post-16 classroom and drawing on a range of literature, this book covers the teaching of topics such as Mind style in contemporary fiction, Comparative poetry analysis, Insights from linguistic cohesion, Criticality through creative response. Written to complement the two other Teaching English 16-19 titles in the NATE series, Teaching English Language and Literature 16-19 is the ideal companion for all practising A-level English teachers of all levels of experience. A/AS

Level English Language and Literature for AQA Student Book Marcello Giovanelli, Andrea Macrae, Felicity Titjen, Ian Cushing, 2015-07-09 A new series of bespoke full coverage resources developed for the 2015 A-Level English qualifications. Endorsed for the AQA A/AS Level English Language and Literature specification for first teaching from 2015, this print Student Book offers stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it. Providing full coverage of the specification, the unique three-part structure bridges the gap between GCSE and A-Level and develops students' understanding of descriptive linguistics and literary and non-literary stylistics, together with support for the revised coursework component and new textual intervention task. An enhanced digital edition and free Teacher's Resource are also available. Creative Writing and Stylistics, Revised and Expanded Edition Jeremy Scott, 2023-08-24 In this innovative fusion of practice and criticism, Jeremy Scott shows how insights from stylistics and linguistics can enrich the craft of creative writing. Focusing on crucial methodological issues that confront the practicing writer, this book introduces writers to key topics from stylistics, provides in-depth analysis of a wide range of writing examples, and includes practical exercises to help develop creative writing skills. Thoroughly revised and expanded throughout, this updated edition more clearly lays out specialist ideas and technical terms within the field of linguistics and features both greater focus on the creative process and more practical exercises to help writers engage with ideas in their work. Clear and accessible, this invaluable guide will give both students and writers a greater critical awareness of the creative possibilities of language. Great Gatsby occupies a position of global recognisability and within the United States cultural mythology that has triggered strong reactions to the four Hollywood adaptations. The various adaptations allow for the differing approaches to the adaptation of this novel to be meaningfully explored. The film adaptations' paratextual elements will be discussed in order to show how these acted as limiting lenses. The strategies of the films for handling elements of Fitzgerald's prose and themes will be compared across the adaptations. This will culminate in an assertion of the worth of a larger application of a Badiouian fidelity within the field.

Making History New Seamus O'Malley, 2014-10-24 Guided by Ezra Pound's dictum 'Make it new' a generation of writers set out to create fiction and poetry that was unlike anything that came before it. However as Seamus O'Malley shows historical narrative was a key site for modernist experimentation. Taking three of literary modernism's major figures Joseph Conrad, Ford Madox Ford and Rebecca West Making History New demonstrates how the movement's literature not only engaged with history but also transformed traditional approaches to its telling in unique ways. Informed by Paul Ricoeur's belief that narrative is necessary to comprehend historical processes the study closely examines four major modernist historical novels. Conrad's Nostromo interrogates the very term history as it relates the political tumult of a fictitious Latin American country while Ford's The Good Soldier mirrors the cyclical nature of historiography with a protagonist who returns repeatedly to intense periods of his own past to better comprehend them. Two epochal World War I novels The Return of the Soldier and Parade's End depict shell-shocked veterans that illustrate the paradox of an accurate historical rendering achieved through the process of amnesia. These novels in O'Malley's view lead to the high point of what he terms modernist historiography. Rebecca West's innovative 1941 travelogue Black Lamb and Grey Falcon and its preoccupation with history's impossibility. The monograph concludes with a brief consideration of how historians since World War II have adopted some of the approaches to narrative inaugurated by literary modernists while wrestling with how to relate unthinkable atrocities such as genocide. Ultimately Making History New foregrounds narrative's essential role as a bridge between fiction and history as it explores the process by which collective human experience becomes historical narrative.

Literary Geographies S. Hones, 2014-08-07 Combining literary analysis with a practical introduction to interdisciplinary literary geography Literary Geographies examines key elements of Colum McCann's 2009 novel Let the Great World Spin. Hones examines concepts such as narrative space, literary and academic collaboration and the geographies of creation, production and reception.

A Class of Its Own Laura Hapke, Lisa A. Kirby, 2009-01-14 A Class of Its Own positions important and rediscovered American social protest authors within both a scholarly and student-centered context. The volume draws on the expertise and pedagogy of established and younger scholars who move gracefully from theories of what makes a text 'working class' to how studies of class empower college teachers and courses. Among the authors discussed in the volume's essays and prominent in the book's syllabi section are Zora Neale Hurston, Stephen Crane, Agnes Smedley and Ana Castillo.

Gatsby Bob Batchelor, 2013-11-07 In 1925 F. Scott Fitzgerald produced his third novel, a slim work for which he had high expectations Despite such hopes the novel received mixed reviews and lackluster sales Over the decades however the reputation of The Great Gatsby has grown and millions of copies have been sold One of the bestselling novels of all time it is also considered one of the most significant achievements in twentieth century fiction But what makes Gatsby great Why do we still care about this book more than eighty five years after it was published And how does Gatsby help us make sense of our own lives and times In Gatsby The Cultural History of the Great American Novel Bob Batchelor explores the birth life and enduring influence of The Great Gatsby from the book s publication in 1925 through today s headlines filled with celebrity intrigue corporate greed and a roller coaster economy A cultural historian Batchelor explains why and how the novel has become part of the fiber of the American ethos and an important tool in helping readers to better comprehend their lives and the broader world around them A biography of F Scott Fitzgerald s masterpiece this book examines The Great Gatsby s evolution from a nearly forgotten 1920s time capsule to a revered cultural touchstone Batchelor explores how this embodiment of the American Dream has become an iconic part of our national folklore how the central themes and ideas emerging from the book from the fulfillment of the American Dream to the role of wealth in society resonate with contemporary readers who struggle with similar uncertainties today By exploring the timeless elements of reinvention romanticism and relentless pursuit of the unattainable Batchelor confirms the novel s status as The Great American Novel and more importantly explains to students scholars and fans alike what makes Gatsby so great

The Foreign Critical Reputation of F. Scott Fitzgerald, 1980-2000 Linda C. Stanley, 2004-10-30 This bibliography extends the work of Stanley s first volume The Foreign Critical Reputation of F Scott Fitzgerald An Analysis and Annotated Bibliography to the final two decades of the 20th century It includes literature from the former countries of the USSR Romania India and Canada as well as countries that were covered in the first volume such as Britain France Italy Germany and Japan One of the major findings that emerges is that Fitzgerald's poetic prose is extremely difficult to translate but new translations continue to appear The introduction to this volume provides a synthesis of Fitzgerald scholarship abroad at the turn of the 21st century and points to new directions already suggested that may represent challenges to current scholarship An extended analysis introduces each chapter Each chapter also includes a chronological list of translations and editions of Fitzgerald's work from his earliest appearances in print to those appearing in 2000 The most substantial section of each chapter features fairly detailed annotations of monographs collections book chapters essays conference papers articles reviews and school editions This compilation will intrigue anyone interested in the work of F Scott Fitzgerald
