Greenpeace Uk Annual Report:

Governing Through Markets Benjamin William Cashore, Graeme Auld, Deanna Newsom, 2004-01-01 In this important book Lawrence Sager a leading constitutional theorist offers a lucid understanding and compelling defence of American constitutional practice Sager treats judges as active partners in the enterprise of securing the fundamentals of political justice and sees the process of constitutional adjudication as a promising and distinctly democratic addition to that enterprise But his embrace of the constitutional judiciary is not unqualified Judges in Sager's view should and do stop short of enforcing the whole of the Constitution and the Supreme Court should welcome rather than condemn the efforts of Congress to pick up the slack Among the surprising fruit of this justice seeking account of American constitutional practice are a persuasive case for the constitutional right to secure a materially decent life and sympathy for the obduracy of the Constitution to amendment No book can end debate in this conceptually tumultuous area but Justice in Plainclothes is likely to help shape the ongoing debate for years to come Annual Report Great Britain. Radioactive Waste Management Advisory Committee, 1980 Climate Justice and Human Rights Tracey Skillington, 2016-11-25 This book shows that escalating climate destruction today is not the product of public indifference but of the blocked democratic freedoms of peoples across the world to resist unwanted degrees of capitalist interference with their ecological fate or capacity to change the course of ecological disaster The author assesses how this state of affairs might be reversed and the societal relevance of universal human rights rejuvenated It explores how freedom from want war persecution and fear of ecological catastrophe might be better secured in the future through a democratic reorganization of procedures of natural resource management and problem resolution amongst self determining communities It looks at how increasing human vulnerability to climate destruction forms the basis of a new peoples powered demand for greater climate justice as well as a global movement for preventative action and reflexive societal learning Understanding Sustainable Development John Blewitt, 2014-07-25 This new and expanded edition builds upon the first edition's powerful multi perspective approach and breath of coverage A truly comprehensive introduction to sustainable development it is designed specifically to allow access to the topic from a wide range of educational and professional backgrounds and to develop understanding of a diversity of approaches and traditions at different levels This second edition includes a complete update of the text with increased coverage of major topics including ecosystems production and consumption business urban sustainability governance new media technologies conservation leadership globalization and global crises sustainability literacy and learning more examples from the Global South and North America while retaining its unique coverage of first world countries chapter aims at the start and summaries at the end of each chapter glossary of key terms a new chapter on Conservation with a focus on behaviour change and values a brand new website which includes discussion of how projects are done on the ground additional exercises and online cases test questions and recommended readings and films Offering boxed examples from the local to the global

Pemberton, 2015-09-16 Corporate Governance and the Nuclear Industry explores the UK nuclear Legacy governance issues associated with the decommissioning of a range of early generation civil nuclear facilities This book traces how we got here and the risks that have been taken whilst presenting new research and thinking that is required to manage our nuclear Legacy The book addresses a new analytical approach using notions of governance to review key historic events This approach analyses these events using concepts of stakeholder control accountability and regulation Using these concepts and undertaking a more detailed analysis of the Legacy s current governance arrangements the conventional public sector based solutions that attempt to harness private sector expertise this book will contrast these with government responses to determine the degree of control over the Legacy and any possible control issues Corporate Governance and the Nuclear

Industry concludes that we need to recognise the legacy's problems as exceptional rather than prosaic and suggests that this requires exceptional governance solutions rather than the current form that is clearly failing Beyond Borders Brian Doherty, Timothy Doyle, 2013-10-18 Globalisation is about transnational politics While nation state governments increasingly struggle with this new politics which moves beneath between and beyond national borders others entities like transnational corporations have flourished But it is not just business which increasingly bypasses these traditional boundaries Environmental groups are also moving through this transnational space and their politics are defined by such qualities as fluidity ambiguity and rapid changes in identity mission and structure In this book the politics of environmental movements are presented as particularly salient examples of these new phenomena Drawing on fieldwork from Europe Asia America Africa and the Middle East the contributors address a range of transnational processes efforts to construct common agendas transnationally the diffusion of new repertoires of environmental protest the role of environmental groups in the construction of new modes of environmental governance how neo liberalism affects local environmental activism evidence of transnational influences and pressures on environmental politics in repressive regimes and the dilemmas of defining questions of environmental justice and post colonial environmental politics without suppressing the differences between environmentalism in different countries Cities, Networks, and Global Environmental Governance Sofie Bouteligier, 2013 As a result of global dynamics the increasing interconnection of people and places innovations in global environmental governance have altered the role of cities in shaping the future of the planet This book is a timely study of the importance of these social transformations in our increasingly global and increasingly urban world Through analysis of transnational municipal networks such as Metropolis and the C40 Cities Climate Leadership Group Sofie Bouteligier's innovative study examines theories of the network society and global cities from a global ecology perspective Through direct observation and interviews and using two types of city networks that have been treated separately in the literature she discovers the structure and logic pertaining to office networks of environmental non governmental organizations and environmental consultancy firms In doing so she incisively demonstrates the ways in which cities fulfill the role of strategic sites of global environmental governance concentrating knowledge infrastructure and institutions vital to the function of transnational actors Future Survey Annual 1992 Michael Marien, 1993-01-30 Volunteer Involvement Jürgen Grotz, Ruth Leonard, 2022-11-30 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the latest theory and practice for volunteer involvement It represents a milestone for knowledge of how and why volunteers become involved and will be essential reading for practitioners policy makers and funders Offering exercises and examples from practice it introduces concepts for understanding volunteers agency and for critically assessing ways in which those who seek to involve volunteers can respond to rapidly changing environments The authors draw on a combination of theoretical perspectives and practical experiences to develop approaches based on individuals and community strengths and assets underlining the need for conviviality respect and enjoyment in volunteer involvement      The Changing Geography of the UK Hugh Matthews,Vince Gardiner,2002-03-11

First published in 2000 Within the last decade the UK has undergone major shifts in terms of its land economy society polity and environment all of which have had a profound effect on the geographical landscape This fully revised edition of a widely appreciated book presents a full description and interpretation of the changes that have occurred during the 1990s It includes a great deal of new material from a revised team of contributors      New Troubles for the West Joshua W. Busby,2004      The Politics of Expertise Matthew Hilton,James McKay,Nicholas Crowson,Jean-François Mouhot,2013-04-25 The Politics of Expertise offers a challenging new interpretation of politics in contemporary Britain through an examination of non governmental organisations Using specific case studies of the homelessness environment and international aid and development sectors it demonstrates how politics and political activism has changed over the last half century NGOs have contributed enormously to a professionalization and a privatization of politics emerging as a new form of expert knowledge and political participation They have been led by a new breed of non party politician working in collaboration and in competition with government Skilful navigators of the modern technocratic state they have brought expertise to expertise and in so doing have changed the nature of grassroots activism As affluent citizens have felt marginalised by the increasingly complex nature of many policy solutions they have made the rational calculation to support NGOs the professionalism and resources of which make them better able to tackle complex problems Yet in doing so support rather than participation becomes the more appropriate way to describe the relationship of the public to NGOs As voter turnout has declined membership and trust in NGOs has increased But NGOs are very different types of organisations from the classic democratic institutions of political parties and the labour movement They maintain different and varied relationships with the publics they seek to represent Attracting mass support has provided them with the resources and the legitimacy to speak to power on a bewildering range of issues yet perhaps the ultimate victors in this new form of politics are the NGOs themselves      Nuclear Decommissioning Authority Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Trade and Industry Committee,2005-05-19 Nuclear Decommissioning Authority Oral and written Evidence      Nuclear Waste Governance Achim Brunnengräber,Maria Rosaria Di Nucci,Ana Maria Isidoro Losada,Lutz Mez,Miranda A.
