Data-Driven Learning for the Next Generation Peter Crosthwaite, 2019-10-21 Despite advancements in and availability of corpus software in language classrooms facilitating data driven learning DDL the use of such methods with pre tertiary learners remains rare This book specifically explores the affordances of DDL for younger learners testing its viability with teachers and students at the primary and secondary years of schooling It features eminent and up and coming researchers from Europe Asia and Australasia who seek to address best practice in implementing DDL with younger learners while providing a wealth of empirical findings and practical DDL activities ready for use in the pre tertiary classroom Divided into three parts the volume's first section focuses on overcoming emerging challenges for DDL with younger learners including where and how DDL can be integrated into pre tertiary curricula as well as potential barriers to this integration It then considers new cutting edge innovations in corpora and corpus software for use with younger learners in the second section before reporting on actual DDL studies performed with younger learners and or their teachers at the primary and secondary levels of education This book will appeal to post graduate students academics and researchers with interests in corpus linguistics second language acquisition primary and secondary literacy education and language and educational technologies

Learning English and Chinese as Foreign Languages Wen-Chuan Lin, 2019-09-19 Learning English and Chinese is becoming increasingly important to the prospects of young people This book compares English as a Foreign Language teaching in Taiwan with Chinese as a Foreign Language education in England in order to highlight how classroom activities are embedded within multiple settings including ethnic or other social group cultures family and community resources and school visions or goals The book illustrates how in Taiwan different ethnic groups recognise access and value English language learning to varying extents Its findings illuminate why some ethnic groups are highly motivated to learn English and are able to gain privileged economic positions in the job market In England access to Chinese is marked by social class and the book argues that this could augment an educational apartheid that already exists in language teaching in secondary schools thereby exacerbating existing inequality The Church Times ,1900 Digital Games and Mental Health Rachel Kowert,Christopher J.
