Transfixed by Prehistory Maria Stavrinaki, 2022-05-24 An examination of how modern art was impacted by the concept of prehistory and the prehistoric Prehistory is an invention of the late nineteenth century In that moment of technological progress and acceleration of production and circulation three major Western narratives about time took shape One after another these new fields of inquiry delved into the obscure immensity of the past first to surmise the age of the Earth second to find the point of emergence of human beings and third to ponder the age of art Maria Stavrinaki considers the inseparability of these accounts of temporality from the disruptive forces of modernity She asks what a history of modernity and its art would look like if considered through these three interwoven inventions of the longue durée Transfixed by Prehistory attempts to articulate such a history which turns out to be more complex than an inevitable march of progress leading up to the Anthropocene Rather it is a history of stupor defamiliarization regressive acceleration and incessant invention since the new was also found in the deep sediments of the Earth Composed of as much speed as slowness as much change as deep time as much confidence as skepticism and doubt modernity is a complex phenomenon that needs to be rethought Stavrinaki focuses on this intrinsic tension through major artistic practices Cézanne Matisse De Chirico Ernst Picasso Dubuffet Smithsonian Morris and contemporary artists such as Pierre Huyghe and Thomas Hirschhorn philosophical discourses Bataille Blumenberg and Jäger and the human sciences This groundbreaking book will attract readers interested in the intersections of art history anthropology psychoanalysis mythology geology and archaeology
