School Days Laura Ingalls Wilder, 1997-03-28 School Days School is always exciting for Laura Ingalls and her sisters Laura knows that learning can be fun and there are so many friends to play with at recess The Laura Chapter Books are part of an ongoing series of Little House Chapter Books

Aesthetic Approaches to Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2005-05-12 As undergraduate and graduate courses in children's literature become more established and numerous there is an intense need for a textbook that offers aesthetic rather than educational approaches to children's literature This work fills that void by providing students of children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used The chapters are organized around familiar and easily recognized features of literary texts e.g. author genre character Theoretical issues are illustrated by specific texts from the North American children's literature canon The book explores the particular aesthetics of children's fiction and the ways critical theory may be applied to children's texts while remaining accessible to a college readership without prior specialized knowledge of literary theory Each chapter includes a short introduction to a specific theoretical approach e.g. semiotics feminist psychoanalytic an example of its application to a literary text a number of activities study questions reading exercises and suggestions for further explorations

Children's Literature Barbara Stoodt, 1996

Reading and Writing Pathways through Children's and Young Adult Literature Alicia Curtin, 2022-07-29 This thought provoking book will provide masters students teachers and researchers with a toolkit and theoretical framework for teaching literacy through children's literature It features innovative ideas for developing student and teacher experiences with literature and popular culture texts in the classroom providing practical examples and teaching aids throughout Taking a collaborative approach Curtin explores how teachers and learners can engage with literature and its authors for the development of literacy in classroom practice Connecting reader and writer identities and worlds through interviews with and suggested classroom activities from authors themselves this text combines author teacher and learner perspectives in the development of creative pedagogies that extend understandings of literacy beyond reading writing and text Exploring fairy tales comic books and graphic novels children living in literature i e texts which portray children their lives and experiences popular culture young adult fiction and non fiction and digital texts such as blogs etc this text develops a sociocultural understanding of literacy as a lived and contextually dependent practice where meaning is derived through relationships between people settings and culture Different contexts for literacy are explored including reading and writing strategically to learn about literacy and literature widely for personal purposes and deeply to transform understanding Short 2011 This text will be an invaluable resource for teachers researchers or anyone interested in reading and writing stories The author interviews will also be of particular interest to older learners themselves as a way to develop their understanding of their own reading and writing practices Pedagogies can be adapted to any age group ranging from the early years to young adult
