Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-14 From Picasso's Cubism and Duchamp's readymades to Warhol's silkscreens and Smithson's earthworks the art of the twentieth century broke completely with earlier artistic traditions A basic change in the market for advanced art produced a heightened demand for innovation and young conceptual innovators from Picasso and Duchamp to Rauschenberg and Warhol to Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst responded not only by creating dozens of new forms of art but also by behaving in ways that would have been incomprehensible to their predecessors

Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Art presents the first systematic analysis of the reasons for this discontinuity David W Galenson whose earlier research has changed our understanding of creativity combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a fundamentally new interpretation of modern art that will give readers a far deeper appreciation of the art of the past century and of today than is available elsewhere

The Notion of Space within Diverse Fields of Cognizance Driss Bouyahya,2021-07-28 This volume provides a multifaceted approach to how meanings of space are created and how they impact individuals perceptions sense of belonging identity actions and ideologies It brings together various contributions that shed light on the multiplicity of voices and narratives on space on their co existence and forms of interactions and on the ways in which they emerged from and reshaped relations of power

Art Laurie Schneider Adams,2012-01-01 A beautifully crafted overview of Western artistic tradition OR An exhilarating tour through Western artistic tradition Art has existed for as long as humankind but defining it is famously difficult In this whirlwind tour spanning from prehistory up to the present day and beyond Laurie Schneider Adams explores how art and our views on it have evolved Delving into fascinating issues such as why some artworks can be so controversial why a forgery can never be as good as the original and what the future of art may hold this beautifully crafted introduction provides a definitive overview of Western artistic tradition Also providing a helpful guide to understanding art terminology and to reading artworks for meaning Art A Beginner s Guide is an essential tool for every budding art critic

Ethnozoology Romulo Romeu Nobrega Alves,Ulysses Paulino Albuquerque,2017-10-23 Ethnozoology Animals In Our Lives represents the first book about this discipline providing a discussion on key themes on human animal interactions and their implications along with recent major advances in research Humans share the world with a bewildering variety of other animals and have interacted with them in different ways This variety of interactions both past and present is investigated through ethnozoology which is a hybrid discipline structured with elements from both the natural and social sciences as it seeks to understand how humans have perceived and interacted with faunal resources throughout history In a broader context ethnozoology and its companion discipline ethnobotany form part of the larger body of the science of ethnobiology In recent years the importance of ethnozoological ethnobiological studies has increasingly been recognized unsurprisingly given the strong human influence on biodiversity From the perspective of ethnozoology the book addresses all aspects of human connection animals and health from its use in traditional medicine to bioprospecting derivatives of fauna for pharmaceuticals with expert contributions from leading researchers in the field Draws on editors and contributors extensive research experience and studies covering ethnozoology and ethnobiology Covers all aspects of human animal interaction through the lens of this emerging discipline with coverage of both domestic and wild animal topics Presents topics of great interest to a variety of researchers including those in wildlife conservation biologists ecologists conservationists and domestic related disciplines psychologists sociologists

Artistic Capital David Galenson,2006-05-02

David Galenson's work on the history of art is a unique fusion of econometrics and cultural analysis that is unprecedented in the literature on creativity in any discipline whether economics psychology literary studies or art history Interpreting the Play Script Anne Flitsos, 2011-08-17 One type of analysis cannot fit every play nor does one method of interpretation suit every theatre artist or collaborative team This is the first text to combine traditional and non traditional models giving students a range of tools with which to approach different kinds of performance American Book Publishing Record ,2003
