"e;Original Sin"e;? Kumar Ramakrishna,2016-05-13 e Revisioniste or e alternativee historians have increasingly questioned elements of the Singapore Story the master narrative of the nation s political and socioeconomic development since its founding by the British in 1819 Much criticism focuses especially on one defining episode of the Story the internal security dragnet mounted on 2 February 1963 against Communist United Front elements on the island known to posterity as Operation Coldstore The revisionists claim that Coldstore was mounted for political rather than security reasons and actually destroyed a legitimate Progressive Left opposition personalized by the charismatic figure of Lim Chin Siong rather than a dangerous Communist network as the conventional wisdom holds Relying on both declassified and some previously unseen classified sources this book challenges revisionist claims reiterating the historic importance of Coldstore in helping pave the way for Singapore s remarkable journey from Third World status to First in a single generation A History of Modern Tourism Eric Zuelow,2015-10-26 Tourism is one of the largest industries in the world yet leisure travel is more than just economically important It plays a vital role in defining who we are by helping to place us in space and time In so doing it has aesthetic medical political cultural and social implications However it hasn t always been so Tourism as we know it is a surprisingly modern thing both a product of modernity and a force helping to shape it A History of Modern Tourism is the first book to track the origins and evolution of this pursuit from earliest times to the present From a new understanding of aesthetics to scientific change from the invention of steam power to the creation of aircraft from an elite form of education to family car trips to see national shrines this book offers a sweeping and engaging overview of a fascinating story not yet widely known Miseducation A. J. Angulo,2016-04 By investigating how laws myths national aspirations and global relations have recast and at times distorted the key purposes of education this pathbreaking book sheds light on the role of ignorance in shaping ideas public opinion and policy Robert N Proctor author of Golden Holocaust Origins of the Cigarette Catastrophe and the Case for Abolition Historical Studies in Education Revue d histoire de l ducation Engaging the Emotions in Spanish Culture and History Luisa Elena Delgado,Pura Fernández,Jo Labanyi,2021-04-30 Rather than being properties of the individual self emotions are socially produced and deployed in specific cultural contexts as this collection documents with unusual richness All the essays show emotions to be a form of thought and knowledge and a major component of social life including in the nineteenth century which attempted to relegate them to a feminine intimate sphere The collection ranges across topics such as eighteenth century sensibility nineteenth century concerns with the transmission of emotions early twentieth century cinematic affect and the contemporary mobilization of political emotions including those regarding nonstate national identities The complexities and effects of emotions are explored in a variety of forms political rhetoric literature personal letters medical writing cinema graphic art soap opera journalism popular music digital media with attention paid to broader European and transatlantic implications ISSUES ON WAR & PEACE Julie Kimber,Phillip

Deery, Warwick Eather, Drew Cottle, Nic Maclelland, Jonathan Strauss, Michael Hamel-Green, Jeanette Debney-Joyce, Doris LeRoy, David Faber, 2015-02-15 These proceedings carry some of the papers delivered at the 14th Biennial Labour History Conference 11-13 February 2015 Titled Fighting Against War Peace Activism in the Twentieth Century the conference was held at the University of Melbourne A conference book of refereed papers has been published under that title and these proceedings carry the non refereed papers received for publication There is one exception to that rule the paper written by Warwick Eather and Drew Cottle published below which underwent double blind refereeing It is an important paper which demonstrates with compelling evidence that the rabbit was anything but a curse to the many men women and children who took advantage of the rabbit industry's resilience during the economic storms for much of the twentieth century It exemplifies how meticulous research in labour history can provide an entirely new understanding of an otherwise much maligned animal in Australia The next three papers all concern opposition to nuclear testing from the 1950s to the 1980s When read together they provide a convincing argument for the importance and efficacy of the diverse anti nuclear movements in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands Whilst there are inevitable overlaps these papers emphasise different and often neglected dimensions the struggle for recognition of and compensation for the devastating effects of nuclear testing the internal dynamics of the various nuclear disarmament organisations and an evaluation of their impact on government policy culminating in the Rarotonga Treaty of 1985 The last three papers cover aspects of World War I the Cold War and the Vietnam War The first focuses on the role of one redoubtable woman Ettie Rout in challenging popular misconceptions about venereal disease held by military authorities and the soldiers themselves The next paper examines the life of a Czech Lutheran pastor Professor Josef Hrom dka who visited Australia twice during the 1950s Hrom dka attempted to juggle Christianity with Socialism which in the prevailing climate of strident anti communism provoked hostile receptions and Cold War invective The final paper in this collection brings to life through the reflections of a participant observer the preparations conduct and impact of Adelaide's largest anti war demonstration the protest against the invasion of Iraq in 2003 organised by the NoWar collective Its efforts undertaken by a broad range of rank and file activists is a fitting reminder and exemplar of the theme of our conference peace activism in the twentieth century

A Living History of Immunology

Kendall Arthur Smith, 2015-11-04 In the highly competitive world of biomedical science often the rush to publish and to be recognized as first with a new discovery concept or method is lost in the hurly burly of the moment as the maddening crowd moves on to the next new thing One of the great things about immunology today is that it has only become mature as a science within the last half century and especially within the past 35 years as a consequence of the revolution of molecular immunology which has taken place only since 1980 Consequently most of those who have contributed to our new understanding of how the immune system functions are still alive and well and still contributing Thus A Living History of Immunology collates many stories from the investigators who actually performed the experiments that have established the frontiers of immunology Accordingly this volume combats revisionist science by those who want to alter history by telling the stories a different way than actually happened In this regard one of the good things about science vs other disciplines is that we have the written record of what was done when it was done and by whom Even so we do not have the complete story or narrative of how and why experiments were done and what made the differences that led to success This volume captures and chronicles some of these stories from the past fifty years in immunology

A Military History of India since 1972 Arjun Subramaniam, 2021-06-09 A Military History of India since 1972 is a definitive work of military history that gives the Indian military its rightful place as a key contributor to Indian democracy Arjun Subramaniam offers an engaging narrative that combines superb storytelling with the academic rigor of deep research and analysis It is a comprehensive account of India's resolute responsible and restrained use of force as an instrument of statecraft and how the military has played an essential role in securing the country's democratic tradition along with its rise as an economic and demographic power This book is also about how the Indian nation state and its armed forces have coped with the changing contours of modern conflict in the decades since 1972 These include the 2016 surgical or cross border strikes by the Indian Army's Special Forces across the line of control with Pakistan the face off with the Chinese at Doklam in 2017 and in Ladakh in 2020 the preemptive punitive strikes by the Indian Air Force against terrorist camps in Pakistan in 2019 and the large scale aerial engagement between the Indian Air Force and the Pakistan Air Force the following day These conflicts also include the long running insurgencies in the northeast terrorism and proxy war in

Jammu and Kashmir separatist violence in Punjab and the Indian Peacekeeping Force's intervention in Sri Lanka The author also includes a chapter on the development of India's nuclear capabilities Arjun Subramaniam enlivens the narrative with a practitioner's insights amplified by interviews and conversations with almost a hundred serving and retired officers including former chiefs from all three armed forces for an in-depth exploration of land air and naval operations The structure of the book offers readers a choice of either embarking on a comprehensive and chronological examination of war and conflict in contemporary India or a selective reading based on specific time lines or campaigns TRIUMPH OF RACISM: The History of White Supremacy in Africa and How Shithole Entered the U.S Presidential Lexicon Emmanuel Neba-Fuh,2021-04-05

Emmanuel Neba Fuh in this comprehensive chronological compilation and thorough narrative of the history of white supremacy in Africa provide an unflinching fresh case that African poverty a central tenet of the shithole demonization is not a natural feature of geography or a consequence of culture but a direct product of imperial extraction from the continent a practice that continues into the present A brutal and nefarious tale of slave trade genocides massacres dictators supported progressive leaders murdered weapon smuggling cloak and dagger secret services corruption international conspiracy and spectacular military operations he raised the most basic and fundamental question how was Africa the world's richest continent raped and reduced to what Donald J Trump called shithole V Mbanwie Spatial Cultures Sam Griffiths,Alexander von Lünen,2016-06-10 What is the relationship between how cities work and what cities mean Spatial Cultures Towards a New Social Morphology of Cities Past and Present announces an innovative research agenda for urban studies in which themes and methods from urban history social theory and built environment research are brought into dialogue across disciplinary and chronological boundaries The collection confronts the recurrent epistemological impasse that arises between research focussing on the description of material built environments and that which is concerned primarily with the people who inhabit govern and write about cities past and present A reluctance to engage substantively with this issue has been detrimental to scholarly efforts to understand the urban built environment as a meaningful agent of human social experience Drawing on a wide range of historical and contemporary urban case studies as well as a selection of theoretical and methodological reflections the contributions to this volume seek to historically geographically and architecturally contextualize diverse spatial practices including movement encounter play procession and neighbourhood The aim is to challenge their tacit treatment as universal categories in much writing on cities and to propose alternative research possibilities with implications as much for urban design thinking as for history and the social sciences Postapocalyptic Fantasies in Antebellum American Literature John Hay,2017-10-05 This book examines the widespread use of postapocalyptic fantasies in American literary texts in the early nineteenth century An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba Doctor Nahla Abdo,Nur Masalha,2018-05-15 In 2018 Palestinians mark the 70th anniversary of the Nakba when over 750 000 people were uprooted and forced to flee their homes in the early days of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Even today the bitterness and trauma of the Nakba remains raw and it has become the pivotal event both in the shaping of Palestinian identity and in galvanising the resistance to occupation Unearthing an unparalleled body of rich oral testimony An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba tells the story of this epochal event through the voices of the Palestinians who lived it uncovering remarkable new insights both into Palestinian experiences of the Nakba and into the wider dynamics of the ongoing conflict Drawing together Palestinian accounts from 1948 with those of the present day the book confronts the idea of the Nakba as an event consigned to the past instead revealing it to be an ongoing process aimed at the erasure of Palestinian memory and history In the process each unique and wide ranging contribution leads the way for new directions in Palestinian scholarship

Spectacular Television Helen Wheatley, 2016-06-20 In terms of visual impact television has often been regarded as inferior to cinema It has been characterised as sound led and consumed by a distracted audience Today it is tempting to see the rise of HD television as ushering in a new era of spectacular television Yet since its earliest days the medium has been epitomised by spectacle and offered its viewers diverse forms of visual pleasure Looking at the early promotion of television and the launch of colour broadcasting Spectacular Television traces a history of television as spectacular attraction from its launch to the contemporary age of surround sound digital effects and HD screens In focusing on the spectacle of nature landscape and even our own bodies on television via explorations of popular television dramas documentary series and factual entertainment and ambitious natural history television Helen Wheatley answers the questions what is televisual pleasure and how has television defined its own brand of spectacular aesthetics

US Policies in Central Asia Ilya Levine, 2016-06-10 Democracy promotion security and energy are the predominant themes of US policy in Central Asia after the Cold War This book analyses how the Bush administration understood and pursued its interests in the Central Asia states namely Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Kazakhstan Uzbekistan Turkmenistan It discusses the shift in US interests after September 11 and highlights key ideas actors and processes that have been driving US policy in Central Asia The author examines the similarities between the Bush and Obama administrations attitudes towards the region and he points to the inadequacy of the personality focused partisan accounts that have all too often been deployed to describe the two presidential administrations To understand US Central Asian policy it is necessary to appreciate the factors behind its continuities as well as the legacies of the September 11 attacks Using case studies on the war on terror energy and democracy drawing on personal interviews with Americans and Central Asians as well as the fairly recent releases of declassified and leaked US Government documents via sources like the Rumsfeld Papers and Wikileaks the author argues that the US approached Central Asia as a non unitary state with an ambiguous hierarchy of interests Traditionally domestic issues could be internationalised and non state actors were able to play significant roles The actual relationships between its interests were neither as harmonious nor as conflicted as the administration and some of its critics claimed Shedding new light on US relations with Central Asia this book is of interest to scholars of Central Asia US Politics and International Relations

Black British History Hakim Adi, 2019-03-15

For over 1500 years before the Empire Windrush docked on British shores people of African descent have played a significant and far ranging role in the country's history from the African soldiers on Hadrian's Wall to the Black British intellectuals who made London a hub of radical Pan African ideas But while there has been a growing interest in this history there has been little recognition of the sheer breadth and diversity of the Black British experience until now This collection combines the latest work from both established and emerging scholars of Black British history It spans the centuries from the first Black Britons to the latest African migrants covering everything from Africans in Tudor England to the movement for reparations and the never ending struggles against racism in between An invaluable resource for both future scholarship and those looking for a useful introduction to Black British history Black British History New Perspectives has the potential to transform our understanding of Britain and of its place in the world with Indigenous Australians requires a genuine dialogue to not only examine the legal and intellectual framework that constrains Indigenous recognition but to create new foundations for a renewed relationship based on intercultural negotiation mutual respect sharing and mutual responsibility This must involve building a shared understanding around addressing past injustices and creating a shared vision for how Indigenous people and other Australians will associate politically in the future
