Xi Jinping has made his ambitions for the People s Liberation Army PLA perfectly clear there is no mystery what he wants first that China should become a great maritime power and secondly that the PLA become a world class armed force by 2050 He wants this latter objective to be largely completed by 2035 China as a Twenty First Century Naval Power focuses on China s navy and how it is being transformed to satisfy the world class goal Beginning with an exploration of why China is seeking to become such a major maritime power author Michael McDevitt first explores the strategic rationale behind Xi s two objectives China s reliance on foreign trade and overseas interests such as China s Belt and Road strategy In turn this has created concerns within the senior levels of China s military about the vulnerability of its overseas interests and maritime life lines is a major theme McDevitt dubs this China s sea lane anxiety and traces how this has required the PLA Navy to evolve from a near seas focused navy to one that has global reach a blue water navy He details how quickly this transformation has taken place thanks to a patient step by step approach and abundant funding The more than 10 years of anti piracy patrols in the far reaches of the Indian Ocean has acted as a learning curve accelerator to blue water status McDevitt then explores the PLA Navy s role in the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean He provides a detailed assessment of what the PLAN will be expected to do if Beijing chooses to attack Taiwan potentially triggering combat with America s first responders in East Asia especially the U S Seventh Fleet and U S Fifth Air Force He conducts a close exploration of how the PLA Navy fits into China s campaign plan aimed at keeping reinforcing U S forces at arm s length what the Pentagon calls anti access and area denial A2 AD if war has broken out over Taiwan or because of attacks on U S allies and friends that live in the shadow of China McDevitt does not know how Xi defines world class but the evidence from the past 15 years of building a blue water force has already made the PLA Navy the second largest globally capable navy in the world This book concludes with a forecast of what Xi s vision of a world class navy might look like in the next fifteen years when the 2035 deadline is reached Army Surveillance in America, 1775-1980 Joan M. Jensen,1991-01-01 Looks at the role the Army has taken in keeping track of suspected spies traitors and revolutionaries and describes how the federal government has used the Army to intervene in domestic problems Shadow Networks Francisco Louçã,Michael Ash,2018-10-03 The 2007 08 financial crisis surprised many economists and the public But how did the crisis come about why was it so deep and why has the clean up been so slow and painful Many accounts of the crisis focus on renegade activity in marginal financial sectors Shadow Networks challenges this pervading view and sets out to demonstrate that far from a dissident branch the shadow finance that initiated the crisis is tightly networked with and highly profitable for bank based finance The collapse was not an accident but baked into the system of finance from the start Shadow Networks traces the complex web of power that caused crisis and gives vivid descriptions of the actors in the quarter century leading up to 2007 to explain how the now decade long crisis took shape Shadow Networks Financial Disorder and the System that Caused Crisis is a probing examination of the roles of the powerful elite It traces the networks and institutions that support a finance focused market centered model of economy and society from their ascendancy to their surprising resilience in the face of manifest failures Women of the Foreign Office Elizabeth Warburton, Richard Warburton, 2021-03-19 Since the suffrage campaigns in the early twentieth century the advancement of women s rights in the UK has been nonstop Proponents of the cause have aimed for equality across all sectors personal and civil rights employment rights equal pay and yet Britain s first official female ambassador did not take up her position until 1976 Many obstacles lay between a capable educated woman and the fulfilment of her potential Here Elizabeth and Richard Warburton cast a detailed eye over the advancement of women in the Foreign Office as diplomats ambassadors ministers and Foreign Secretary Leaving no stone unturned they discuss the culturally conservative closed pillar of the Foreign Office in the context of the times and of the development of women s rights both in the UK and across the first world Supported by first person accounts they explore the stories of those who successfully broke through the constraints of convention prejudice and law and why
