BASELINE ASSESSMENT

ACTIVITY 1

QUESTION 1: REASON WHY THE WORLD WAR I BROKE OUT.

Study the source and answer the questions that follow.

SOURCE A

World War I, also known as the Great War, began in 1914 after the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria. His murder catapulted into a war across Europe that lasted until 1918. During the conflict, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and the Ottoman Empire (the Central Powers) fought against Great Britain, France, Russia, Italy, Romania, Canada, Japan and the United States (the Allied Powers). Thanks to new military technologies and the horrors of trench warfare, World War I saw unprecedented levels of carnage and destruction. By the time the war was over and the Allied Powers claimed victory, more than 16 million people—soldiers and civilians alike—were dead.

Whose History Counts June Bam, Lungisile Ntsebeza, Allan Zinn, 2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of e pre coloniale and explores methodologies on researching and writing history German Colonialism in Africa and its Legacies Itohan Osayimwese, 2023-02-23 Germany developed a large colonial empire over the last thirty years of the 19th century spanning regions of the west coast of Africa to its east coast and beyond Largely forgotten for many years recent intense debates about Africa's cultural heritage in European museums have brought this period of African and German history back into the spotlight German Colonialism in Africa and its Legacies brings much needed context to these debates exploring perspectives on the architecture art urbanism and visual culture of German colonialism in Africa and its legacies in postcolonial and present day Namibia Cameroon and Germany The first in depth exploration of the designed and visual aspects of German colonialism the book presents a series of essays combining formal analyses of painting photography performance art buildings and space with the discourse analysis approach associated with postcolonial theory Covering the entire period from the build up to colonialism in the early 19th century to the present subjects covered range from late 19th century German colonial paintings of African landscapes and people to German land appropriation through planning and architectural mechanisms and from indigenous African responses to colonial architecture to explorations of the legacies of German colonialism by contemporary artists today This powerful and revealing collection of essays will encourage new research on this under explored topic and demonstrate the importance of historical research to the present especially with regards to ongoing debates about the presence of material legacies of colonialism in Western culture museum collections and immigration policies The History of the Provincial Press in England Rachel Matthews, 2017-05-18 Regional newspapers around the globe are fighting to survive in the face of challenges to their economic model due to the constant influx of new technology At the same time while studies of the national press have created a continuous narrative on the newspaper the history of the regional press has been subject to relatively little academic scrutiny despite being a significant industry in terms of a readership circulation and profit By focusing on provincial English newspapers Matthews makes the case for the larger issue of the future of local newspapers worldwide She argues that a comprehensive approach to the history of the regional press can result in a conceptualization of the industry in terms of the shift in emphasis between the key elements of state control ownership social influence and production techniques They can be categorized into six distinct stages the local newspaper as opportunistic creation the characterization of the local newspaper as fourth estate the impact of New Journalism the growth of chain control the shock of the free paper and new technology and finally the current picture the search for a new business model

The Unsettling of Europe Peter Gatrell, 2019-08-27 An acclaimed historian examines postwar migration's fundamental role in shaping modern Europe Migration is perhaps the most pressing issue of our time and it has completely decentered European politics in recent years But as we consider the current refugee crisis acclaimed historian Peter Gatrell reminds us that the history of Europe has always been one of people on the move The end of World War II left Europe in a state of confusion with many Europeans virtually stateless Later as former colonial states gained national independence colonists and their supporters migrated to often unwelcoming metropolises The collapse of communism in 1989 marked another fundamental turning point Gatrell places migration at the center of post war European history and the aspirations of migrants themselves at the center of the story of migration This is an urgent history that will reshape our understanding of modern Europe Perspectives on the History of Ancient Near Eastern Studies Agnès

Garcia-Ventura, Lorenzo Verderame, 2021-03-03 The present volume collects eighteen essays exploring the history of ancient Near Eastern studies Combining diverse approaches synthetic and analytic diachronic and transnational this collection offers critical reflections on the who why and how of this cluster of fields How have political contexts determined the conduct of research How do academic agendas reflect larger social economic and cultural interests How have schools of thought and intellectual traditions configured and sometimes predetermined the study of the ancient Near East Contributions treating research during the Nazi and fascist periods examine the interpenetration of academic work with politics while contributions dealing with specific national contexts disclose fresh perspectives on individual scholars as well as the conditions and institutions in which they worked Particular attention is given to scholarship in countries such as Turkey Portugal Iran China and Spain which have hitherto been marginal to historiographic accounts of ancient Near Eastern studies In addition to the editors the contributors are Selim Ferru Adali Silvia Alaura Isabel Almeida Petr Charv t Parsa Daneshmand Eva von Dassow Hakan Erol Sebastian Fink Jakob Flygare Pietro Giammellaro Carlos Gon alves Katrien de Graef Steven W Holloway Ahmed Fatima Kzzo Changyu Liu Patrick Maxime Michel Emanuel Pfoh Jitka S korov Lud k Vac n and Jordi Vidal Evolution, Cognition, and the History of Religion: A New Synthesis Anders Klostergaard Petersen, Gilhus Ingvild Sælid, Luther H.

Martin, Jeppe Sinding Jensen, Jesper Sørensen, 2018-10-08 Evolution Cognition and the History of Religion A New Synthesis comprises 41 chapters that push for a new way of conducting the study of religion thereby transforming the discipline into a genuine science of religion The recent resurgence of evolutionary approaches on culture and the increasing acknowledgement in the natural and social sciences of culture's and religion's evolutionary importance calls for a novel epistemological and theoretical framework for studying these two areas The chapters explore how a new scholarly synthesis founded on the triadic space constituted by evolution cognition cultural and ecological environment may develop Different perspectives and themes relating to this overarching topic are taken up with a main focus on either evolution cognition and or the history of religion The Oxford Handbook of the History of Phenomenology Dan Zahavi,2018 This Oxford Handbook offers a broad critical survey of the development of phenomenology one of the main streams of philosophy since the 19th century Comprising 37 specially written essays by leading figures in the field it will be the authoritative guide to how phenomenology started how it developed and where it is heading Public Workers in Service of America Frederick W. Gooding Jr.,Eric S. Yellin,2023-08-15 From white collar executives to mail carriers public workers meet the needs of the entire nation Frederick W Gooding Jr and Eric S Yellin edit a collection of new research on this understudied workforce Part One begins in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century to explore how questions of race class and gender shaped public workers their workplaces and their place in American democracy In Part Two essayists examine race and gender discrimination while revealing the subtle contemporary forms of marginalization that keep Black men and Black and white women underpaid and overlooked for promotion The historic labor actions detailed in Part Three illuminate how city employees organized not only for better pay and working conditions but to seek recognition from city officials the public and the national labor movement Part Four focuses on nurses and teachers to address the thorny question of whether certain groups deserve premium pay for their irreplaceable work and sacrifices or if serving the greater good is a reward unto itself Contributors Eileen Boris Cathleen D Cahill Frederick W Gooding Jr William P Jones Francis Ryan Jon Shelton Joseph E Slater Katherine Turk Eric S Yellin and Amy Zandoni
