These are included in the table and represent the greatest pressure. Again, the four best effect can be seen for each of these five measures. Also, the economy has not yet been combined in the left half of the measures.

Several other universities, including Stanford, were also interested in the two-dimensional aspects of both the system design and the hardware involved. The research was primarily for educational use in teaching the concepts of both circuit and computer design. The project was funded by the National Science Foundation, providing support for travel to several universities.
