

JACK AND THE BEANSTALK

Read the texts in the boxes and number them from 1 to 8 to sequence the fairy tale

There lived a giant and his wife. Jack wanted some food from his wife and she gave him some milk and bread. While he was eating, the giant came home. Jack was terrified. He hid himself inside. Then he saw the giant take out sacks of gold.

When the giant fell asleep, Jack took the magical harp and he was about to leave. Suddenly, the magic harp began shouting and woke his master up. The giant saw Jack with the harp and ran after him. Fortunately, Jack was too fast for him.

Jack and his mother were very poor. She told Jack to take their only cow to the market and sell it. On the way to the market he met a man. He wanted to buy the cow and offered to give Jack five magic beans for it. Jack took the beans and gave the cow to the man.

While he was eating, the giant returned. Jack got scared and hid under the bed. The giant took out a hen that laid golden eggs. When the giant fell asleep, Jack took the hen and climbed down the beanstalk. Jack's mother was very happy with him.

When Jack's mother saw the beans, she got very angry and threw them out of the window. Jack was very sad and he went to sleep without dinner. When he woke up, he saw a huge beanstalk outside. He climbed up and reached a kingdom up in the sky.

Jack climbed down the beanstalk and reached home. The giant followed him down. Jack quickly ran inside and took an axe. He chopped down the beanstalk. The giant fell and died. Jack and his mother were very rich and they live happily ever after.

When the giant fell asleep, Jack took the gold sacks and went back home. His mother was very happy when she saw the gold. After sometime, he climbed up the beanstalk again and asked for some food from the giant's wife again.

After some days, Jack climbed and went to the giant's castle for the third time. He asked for some food from the wife again. She gave him some bread and milk. But while Jack was eating, the giant came home. This time the giant took out a magical harp.

Literacy Book provides inventive ideas for the classroom together with an accessible and informative summary of the theories that underpin them. Written for the primary school teacher, student or trainee teacher, this book will act as a springboard for further inspiration. The authors of this book, all highly experienced literacy specialists, show the reader how to plan units of work with flexibility and creativity with reference to the literacy learning objectives of the Primary National Strategy. They offer a number of imaginative literacy units based on exciting ideas that are designed to motivate, engage and challenge children in classrooms. This fully updated second edition contains a brand new chapter based on working with museums and galleries in order to expand children's literary creativity. Using as their base three big ideas: contexts and coherence, motivation and content, and process, the authors lead the reader through a set of principles and practices which, when applied to familiar elements of the literacy strategy, will encourage teachers to formulate their own exciting, creative and flexible literacy teaching. Among the literacy areas covered are Narrative, Non-fiction, Traditional tales, Poems, Spoken and written language. This lively, stimulating book is an essential companion for teachers in Foundation Key Stages 1 and 2 and those on initial teacher training courses who want to develop their literacy practice. In addition, it is extremely useful for literacy leaders looking to develop whole school approaches in primary schools.

Enriching Primary English Jonathan Glazzard, Jean Palmer, 2025-02-28. This essential text provides ideas for trainees and teachers to extend both their own teaching and their pupils' learning in primary English through creative approaches and enrichment strategies to promote best practice and outstanding teaching. The book is accessible to all levels of experience and combines theory with practice throughout, delivering the required subject knowledge while encouraging innovative approaches that demand critical reflection. It looks closely at how young children learn to read and write and how practitioners can enable this development through creative ideas. The book begins with an exploration of the development of speaking and listening skills, which form the foundation of successful literacy. Chapters then cover all the key elements of the new curriculum, including word reading, reading comprehension, transcription and composition, plus additional material on drama and reading for pleasure. Throughout the book, there is a clear progression from KS1 to KS2 and a focus on creativity as a vital ingredient in successful English teaching.

Learning to be a Primary Teacher Jonathan Glazzard, Michael Green, 2025-02-28. Learning to be a primary teacher can feel like trying to become a superhero. The new edition of this book will help you harness your superpowers to become that heroic individual looked up to by your class, able to be simultaneously fun, authoritative, inspiring, responsive to a range of needs, and an expert in all subjects. Rooted in the core content framework and informed by the early career framework and new Ofsted inspection framework, it will ensure you are fully equipped to tackle planning and assessment with ease, champion positive behaviour, master curriculum sequencing, build composite subject knowledge and understanding, challenge and apply theory and research, maximise your emotional strength and resilience, stand tall as a professional, promote diversity, inclusion and social justice, and most importantly, protect and nurture the children in your care.

Highly recommended for all trainees Early Career Teachers and mentors this book is packed full of wise advice on building professional knowledge about what is required to excel at meeting the expectations of both the DfE Teachers Standards and the Early Career Framework Not to be missed Dame Alison Peacock CEO of the Chartered College of Teaching
