King Noir Tony Magistrale, Michael J. Blouin, 2025-04-15 Over the past thirty years Stephen King has received enormous attention from both the popular press as well as academics seeking to explain the unique phenomenon of his success Books on King explore his canon in religious contexts in political and historical contexts in mythic specifically Jungian contexts in Gothic horror especially American literary contexts and in a wide variety of other contexts appropriate to a writer who over the past half century has become America's Storyteller Beginning with a never published chapter authored by Stephen King himself on the influence of the genre on his own writing King Noir makes an invaluable contribution to King scholarship by placing King's works in conversation with American crime fiction This is the third book that Tony Magistrale and Michael J Blouin have coauthored on the work of Stephen King and the first to consider King's canon through the lens of crime fiction King Noir examines not only King's own efforts at writing in the detective genre but also how the detective genre finds its way into work typically regarded as horror fiction In interviews King has acknowledged his debt to earlier writers in the genre such as Ed McBain and Raymond Chandler and he much more often references hard boiled writers than he does horror writers One could speculate that King became a writer because of his love of pulpy crime fiction which he continues to hold in high esteem From The Dead Zone to Mr Mercedes from the crime fiction of his pseudonym Richard Bachman to his most recent novel Holly King returns obsessively to patterns established by American sleuths of every stripe paying homage to them at the same time as he innovates on the formulas he has inherited To focus upon a hard boiled Stephen King is to discover exciting new avenues for inquiry into one of America's most enduring and adaptable storytellers

A Brief Guide to Stephen King Paul Simpson, 2014-03-20 2014 marks the 40th anniversary of the publication of Stephen King's first novel Carrie in April 1974 Rescued from the rubbish by his wife Tabitha the novel launched the Maine schoolteacher on a prolific and extraordinarily successful career His name has become synonymous with horror and suspense through over fifty works including The Dark Tower a retelling of Byron's Childe Harold to the Dark Tower Came Simpson traces the writer's life from his difficult childhood his father went out to the shops and never came back through his initial books under the pseudonym Richard Bachman to the success of Carrie Salem's Lot and The Shining in the 1970s and beyond He examines how King's writing was affected by the accident that nearly killed him in 1999 and how his battles with alcohol and addiction to medication have been reflected in his stories The guide will also take a look at the very many adaptations of King's work in movies on television and radio and in comic books

The Poetics of Genre in the Contemporary Novel Tim Lanzendörfer, 2015-11-19 The Poetics of Genre in the Contemporary Novel investigates the role of genre in the contemporary novel taking its departure from the observation that numerous contemporary novelists make use of popular genre influences in what are still widely considered to be literary novels it sketches the uses of the work and the value of genre It suggests the value of a critical look at texts genre use for an analysis of the contemporary moment From this it develops a broader perspective suggesting the value of genre criticism and taking into view traditional genres such as the bildungsroman and the metafictional novel as well as the kinds of amalgamated forms which have recently come to prominence In essays discussing a wide range of authors from Steven Hall to Bret Easton Ellis to Colson Whitehead the contributors to the volume develop their own readings of genre's work and valence in the contemporary novel

The Best Horror of the Year Ellen Datlow, 2014-05-20 This statement was true when H P Lovecraft first wrote it at the beginning of the twentieth century and it remains true at the beginning of the twenty first century The only thing that has changed is what is unknown With each passing year science technology and the march of time shine light into the craggy corners of the universe making the fears of an earlier generation seem quaint But this light creates its own shadows The Best Horror of the Year edited by Ellen Datlow chronicles these shifting shadows It is a catalog of terror fear and unpleasantness as articulated by today's most challenging and exciting writers The best horror writers of today do the same thing that horror writers of a hundred years ago did They tell good stories stories that scare us And when these writers tell really good stories that really scare us Ellen Datlow notices She's been noticing for more than a quarter century For twenty one years she coedited The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror and for the last six years she's edited this series In addition to this monumental cataloging of the best she has edited hundreds of other horror anthologies and won numerous awards including the Hugo Bram Stoker and World Fantasy awards More than any other editor or critic Ellen Datlow has charted the shadowy abyss of horror fiction Join
