The Audience in Everyday Life S. Elizabeth Bird,2013-08-21 The Audience in Everyday Life argues that a media audience cannot be studied in front of the television alone their interaction with media does not simply end when the set is turned off Instead we must study the daily lives of audiences to find the undercurrents of media influence in everyday life Bird provides a host of useful tools and methods for scholars and students interested in the ways media is consumed in everyday life

Civil-Military 'Legal' Relations: Where to from Here? Pauline Therese Collins,2018-04-03 Civil military relations establishes the civilian control over the military to protect democratic values This book argues analysis of the CMR is distorted by the absence of consideration of the judicial arm with the civil seen as referring only to the executive and or legislature The civil courts approach to military discipline and the impact that has for CMR within the United Kingdom United States and Australia is investigated The author concludes that by including the courts in the development of CMR theory militarisation of the civilian domain is discouraged A paradigm shift acknowledging the fundamental role of all three organs of government in liberal democracies for control of States power is essential for genuine civilian oversight
