Information And The Stockpiling Of Tamiflu HC 295 examines two separate but connected issues the routine withholding of clinical trial information from doctors and researchers and the effectiveness of stockpiling of Tamiflu during an influenza pandemic The full results of clinical trials are being routinely and legally withheld from doctors and researchers by the manufacturers of medicines The ability of doctors researchers and patients to make informed decisions about treatments is being undermined Regulators and the industry have recently made proposals to open up access but these do not cover the issue of access to the results of trials in the past which bear on the efficacy and safety of medicines in use today Research suggests that the probability of completed trials being published is roughly 50% Trials which give a favorable verdict are
