Just Above My Head:

Just Above My Head James Baldwin, 2000-06-13 James Baldwin's final novel is the work of a born storyteller at the height of his powers The New York Times Book Review Not everything is lost Responsibility cannot be lost it can only be abdicated If one refuses abdication one begins again The stark grief of a brother mourning a brother opens this stunning unforgettable novel Here in a monumental saga of love and rage James Baldwin goes back to Harlem to the church of his groundbreaking novel Go Tell It on the Mountain to the forbidden passion of Giovanni's Room and to the political fire that enflames his nonfiction work Here too the story of gospel singer Arthur Hall and his family becomes both a journey into another country of the soul and senses and a living contemporary history of black struggle in this land Salvific Manhood Ernest L. Gibson (III), 2019-10 2020 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Salvific Manhood foregrounds the radical power of male intimacy and vulnerability in surveying each of James Baldwin's six novels Asserting that manhood and masculinity hold the potential for both tragedy and salvation Ernest L Gibson III highlights the complex and difficult emotional choices Baldwin's men must make within their varied lives relationships and experiences In Salvific Manhood Gibson offers a new and compelling way to understand the hidden connections between Baldwin's novels Thematically daring and theoretically provocative he presents a queering of salvation a nuanced approach that views redemption through the lenses of gender and sexuality Exploring how fraternal crises develop out of sociopolitical forces and conditions Salvific Manhood theorizes a spatiality of manhood where spaces in between men are erased through expressions of intimacy and love Positioned at the intersections of literary criticism queer studies and male studies Gibson deconstructs Baldwin's wrestling with familial love American identity suicide art incarceration and memory by magnifying the potent idea of salvific manhood Ultimately Salvific Manhood calls for an alternate reading of Baldwin's novels introducing new theories for understanding the intricacies of African American manhood and American identity all within a space where the presence of tragedy can give way to the possibility of salvation

Colored Women Sittin' on High Melanie R. Hill, 2025-04-23 From blue note turmoil to grace note power Black women preachers stand tall In Colored Women Sittin on High Melanie R Hill offers a new perspective on the art of the sermon in African American literature music and theology Drawing on the womanist cadence of Alice Walker in literature and the rhythmical flow of named womanist theologians Hill makes interventions at the intersections of African American literary criticism music and religious studies Pushing against the patriarchal dominance that often exists in religious spaces Hill argues that Black women's religious practice creates a sermonic space that thrives inside and outside the church allowing for a critique of sexism and anti Black racism She examines literature by writers such as Zora Neale Hurston and James Baldwin music by Aretha Franklin and Ms Lauryn Hill and sermons by theologians Ruby Sales and Vashti M McKenzie and she takes readers into a sermonic artwork of artists preachers and freedom movement activists who are as Hill contends the greatest virtuosic alchemists of our time Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts, 1873 American
