Just One More Breath Leigha Lewis:

Just One More Breath Leigha Lewis, 2014-05-19 What would you do if you've lost everything? If the reason you woke up in the morning no longer existed? If life dealt you a blow so devastating that something as simple as breathing was just too painful? How would you find the strength to go on? Nicole Miller was happy, busy with her family and her dream job. Life was perfect. When tragedy struck, she succumbed to her devastating loss and crumbled under the heavy weight of her despair. She didn't know where to find the strength to keep going. Divorce Attorney Shawn Burns had seen too many destroyed marriages to believe that happily ever after actually existed. By avoiding commitment, he remained aloof and, most importantly, unattached. There has only ever been one woman who has managed to shake that resolve: his good friend from college. But she was married to someone else. Some friendships survive under stress. Some do not. Could Shawn provide the healing balm for his friend's heart? Would Nicole ever be able to find hope, forgiveness, or love for her desolate heart?
