Controversy over immigrants and the language they speak is not new. Millions of Germans moved to the United States in the 1800s and ^{brought} bringing their language with them. They not only held their religious services in German, but they also opened private schools in which the teachers ~~taught~~ in German, published German-language newspapers, ^{spoke} and speaking German at home, in stores, and ~~also spoke~~ it in taverns. Eventually all this changed.

The first generation of immigrants ~~spoke~~ German almost exclusively. The second generation assimilated, ~~speaking~~ English at home, but also ^{speaking} would-speak German when they visited their parents. For the most part, the third generation knew German only as “that language” that their grandparents used.
