Superintendent of Documents,1991      Making the Military Moral Don Carrick,James Connelly,David Whetham,2017-09-08 This book offers a critical analysis both theoretical and practical of ethics education in the military In the twenty first century it has become increasingly important to ensure that the armed forces of Western and other democracies fight justly and behave ethically The good soldier has to be not only professionally skilled but morally intelligent At a time of relentless media scrutiny the publicising of incidents of morally and legally unacceptable behaviour such as the gross mistreatment of prisoners and the torture of suspected terrorists can do much to undermine the credibility of those who claim to hold the moral high ground in any particular conflict Written by an international team of academic theorists and military practitioners this volume provides inter disciplinary insights into the present state and the future of ethics education in the militaries of Western democracies The contributors critically address the central question of whether such education is sufficient to prepare members of the armed forces to face the peculiar challenges of conflict environments that are now primarily wars among the people in which the opposing combatants may have little or no regard for human life and fail to discriminate between soldiers and civilians when choosing their targets Drawing lessons from recent examples of unethical conduct this original book offers insightful and constructive advice both theoretical and practical as to how situations can be improved and on the means that could and should be employed towards this end This book will be of much interest to students of military studies ethics and international relations      Medical Subject Headings National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1986      The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1876 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers
