The questions surrounding how the Irish economy was brought to the brink who was to blame and who should pay for these mistakes have been rightly debated at length But beyond this very legitimate exercise there are deeper questions that need to be answered These questions relate to why we made the decisions we did not just in the last 10 years but over the last 80 How did certain industries become prominent at the expense of others banking as opposed to fisheries international markets as opposed to indigenous industry and job creation Are our problems structural in nature and most importantly what do we need to know to make sure that this crisis does not happen again These are the questions set by this book It will look at the development of the Irish economy over the past eight decades and will argue that the 2008 financial crisis up to and including the IMF bailout of 2010 and the subsequent change of government cannot be explained simply by the moral failings of those in banking or property development alone The problems are deeper more intricate and more dangerous if we remain unaware of them but also potentially avoidable in the future if we break the cycle Sligo Folk Tales Joe McGowan,2015-07-06

For the devotee of Irish heritage mythology or folklore County Sligo has everything From the Curlew mountains in the south where Aodh Ruadh Domhnaill defeated an English army under Sir Conyers Clifford to Benbulbin slopes in the north where St Colmcille battled the High King of Ireland every hill and valley is linked by the gossamer threads of myth folklore and legend These stories some age old legends and fantastical myths some amusing anecdotes and cautionary tales are a heady mix of the bloodthirsty funny and passionate and a selection of the best are retold here by writer and local historian Joe McGowan In these pages you will find little known anecdotes of the traditional ways of Sligo residents their customs and superstitions you will find stories of epic battles and heroic deeds and you will also hear the fantastical accounts of mythical creatures faeries witches and the ghosts of Connacht itself LEGENDS AND STORIES OF IRELAND - 20 Irish folk tales Anon E. Mouse,2018-09-13

It is a widely held belief especially amongst the peoples of English speaking nations that the Irish have the Gift of the Gab Samuel Lover's LEGENDS AND STORIES OF IRELAND shows the utter truthfulness of this conviction Herein you will find 20 of the most enduring classic Irish stories like King O toole And St Kevin Lough Corrib A Legend Of Lough Mask The King And The Bishop Jimmy The Fool The Devil's Mill and many more After a recitation by Samuel Lover of a few tales at a dinner party he was subsequently convinced to publish two of them in the Dublin Literary Gazette The favourable reception of these tales resulted in Irish Stories and Legends an exquisite and exceptional volume of Irish folklore Prepared and collated with very few changes Samuel Lover wanted to stay true to the original stories so that the written story would enchant readers as though it were being presented in the vernacular So we invite you to download and curl up with this unique piece of Irish folklore not seen in print for over one hundred and seventy years and let the Gift of the Irish enchant and captivate you KEYWORDS TAGS fairy tales folklore myths
