

A History of English

1 People speak English all over the world. Did you ever wonder why English is so popular? It started with England. At one time, England was the most powerful country in the world. They wanted to expand their power, so they traded and travelled all across the globe. Their ships carried sailors, spices and explorers. They also carried the English language. In the 1700s, England started colonies in places like Australia, the United States, Canada and India. Many of those colonies became countries that still speak English. Today, countries like the United States and Canada continue to spread English around the globe. People all over the world learn English in order to trade and work with us.

Old, Middle and Modern English

2 English was actually born 1,400 years ago. That's when tribes like the Angles, Saxons and Jutes settled on the islands of Britain. They spoke a language that we call Old English. Then in 1066, William the Conqueror invaded the islands. His armies spoke a Latin language similar to French. As Latin mixed with Old English, new words were formed. This was called Middle English. Middle English lasted for about 500 years. Modern English formed in the 1500s when the printing press was invented. Classic books were translated from the old Latin and Greek into English. Soon, people all over the world were reading in English.

Tomorrow's English?

3 Our language is still changing. The English language often creates new words. One way we manufacture new words is by adding prefixes or suffixes to a base or root. For example, you can unfriend a person that you no longer like. We also like to invent new compound words. A screenager is a teen who loves their digital device. Jeggings are a garment hybrid that are both leggings and jeans. Modern technology also changes the words we use. For example, OMG and LOL are now officially in the dictionary! It seems that the English language of tomorrow will change to reflect the words invented by the kids of today.
