Acting and Performance in Moving Image Culture Jörg Sternagel, Deborah Levitt, Dieter Mersch, 2014-03-15 This volume offers transdisciplinary perspectives on the study of acting and performance in moving image forms It assembles 26 international scholars from dance theatre film media and cultural studies art history and philosophy to investigate the art of acting and the presence of the human body in analog and digital film animation and video art The volume includes classical case studies and essays devoted to acting history and acting and genres but its particular emphasis is on introducing a wide range of groundbreaking theoretical approaches from continental and analytic philosophy to new media theory and cognitivist research all of which interrogate the fundamental conceptions of act and actor that underwrite both popular and academic notions of performance in moving image culture

Billy Wilder Joseph McBride, 2021-10-26 The director and cowriter of some of the world's most iconic films including Double Indemnity Sunset Blvd Some Like It Hot and The Apartment Billy Wilder earned acclaim as American cinema's greatest social satirist Though an influential fixture in Hollywood Wilder always saw himself as an outsider His worldview was shaped by his background in the Austro-Hungarian Empire and work as a journalist in Berlin during Hitler's rise to power and his perspective as a Jewish refugee from Nazism lent his films a sense of the peril that could engulf any society In this critical study Joseph McBride offers new ways to understand Wilder's work stretching from his days as a reporter and screenwriter in Europe to his distinguished as well as forgotten films as a Hollywood writer and his celebrated work as a writer-director In contrast to the widespread view of Wilder as a hardened cynic McBride reveals him to be a disappointed romantic Wilder's experiences as an exile led him to mask his sensitivity beneath a veneer of wisecracking that made him a celebrated caustic wit Amid the satirical barbs and exposure of social hypocrisies Wilder's films are marked by intense compassion and a profound understanding of the human condition Mixing biographical insight with in-depth analysis of films from throughout Wilder's career as a screenwriter and director of comedy and drama and drawing on McBride's interviews with the director and his collaborators this book casts new light on the full range of Wilder's rich complex and distinctive vision

Literary Intermediality Maddalena Pennacchia Punzi, 2007 The increasing transfer of literary texts and of related writing reading processes from the printed page to analog and digital media and vice versa is the phenomenon under investigation in this book for which the

term literary intermediality has been coined Literature is in transit i.e. travelling incessantly through mass media personal media and the internet with crucial effects both on the ways it is perceived by younger generations of users and on the ways it is devised by contemporary authors The literary text far from being restricted to printed media keeps moving across the whole media circuit thus acquiring at any stage a new temporary identity Based on the seminar Intermediality and Literary Practices at the 7th ESSE Conference in 2004 the essays of this collection by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic focus on the seminar's common topics cinema theatre postmodernism and new critical issues A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century Light and Variable Connie Cronley, 2006 Against a backdrop of celebrations and seasons the author marvels at subjects close to her heart in this collection of honest unpretentious essays laced with self deprecating humor that take the reader on a romp through the special occasions of the calendar year Love Wars Mary Irwin, 2025-02-06 This is the first dedicated overview of the international television romantic comedy genre Mary Irwin builds on the critical work on cinematic romantic comedy to offer a dedicated critical analysis of the romantic comedy on the small screen Drawing on series from the 1960s to the present day Irwin presents five themed chapters around the theme of romantic love from searching for it and finding it to the love wars of the book's title to finding love later in life and in places you didn't expect Chapters explore the genre's key recurrent themes evolving attitudes to love relationships sex class and money feminism and post feminism changes in the nuclear family dramatised through contrasting romantic relationships and shifting discourses of masculinity situating them within the specific socio historic and cultural context in which the series are set Throughout Irwin underscores the centrality of women their friendships and their personal and professional lives and experiences to the television romantic comedy genre demonstrating that it is prominence of female characters and their interests and concerns which have most significantly affected the genre's thematic focus Crucially this thematic approach allows for explorations both of similarities in representations to be found in series decades apart and the way in which such representations ebb and flow across time Additionally the international nature of the comedies selected also makes possible comparison beyond national boundaries Passionate Love and Popular Cinema Erica Todd, 2013-12-16 This book analyses the romantic drama and the way that passionate love is presented as the central storyline in popular cinema drawing upon genre studies and sociology Exploring the passionate love story as a cinematic form it also contributes through comparison to research on the romantic comedy A Short History of Film Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2013-02-15 A Short History of Film Second Edition provides a concise and accurate overview of the history of world cinema detailing the major movements directors studios and genres from 1896 through 2012 Accompanied by more than 250 rare color and black and white stills including many from recent films the new edition is unmatched in its panoramic view conveying a sense of cinema's sweep in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries as it is practiced in the United States and around the world Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster present new and amended coverage of the industry in addition to updating the birth and death dates and final works of notable directors Their expanded focus on key films brings the book firmly into the digital era and chronicles the death of film as a production medium The book takes readers through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day It details significant periods in world cinema including the early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s Attention is given to small independent efforts in developing nations and the more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States the significant filmmakers of all nations and the effects of censorship and regulation on production everywhere In addition the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Engaging and accessible this is the best one stop source for the history of world film available for students teachers and general audiences alike Imagining "We" in the Age of "I" Mary Harrod, Suzanne Leonard, Diane Negra, 2021-07-29 Winner MeCCSA Edited Collection of the Year MeCCSA Outstanding Achievement Awards 2022 In the early twenty first century shifts in gender and sexuality work and mobility patterns and especially technology have provoked interest in perceived threats to social bonding on a global scale This edited collection explores the fracturing of couple culture but also its persistence Looking at a variety of media sites including film television popular print fiction new media and new technologies this volume's diverse range of contributors examine how mediated scenes of intimacy proliferate while real life experiences are cast in a newly uncertain light The collection thus challenges a latent but growing tendency towards perceptions of romantic decline in a variety of cultural contexts and with attention to the impact of COVID 19 This is an accessible and timely collection suitable for scholars in gender studies media cultural studies and communication studies

Film Genre Reader IV Barry Keith Grant, 2012-12-01 From reviews of the third edition Film Genre Reader III lives up to the high expectations set by its predecessors providing an accessible and relatively comprehensive look at genre studies The anthology's consideration of the advantages and challenges of genre studies as well as its inclusion of various film genres and methodological approaches presents a pedagogically useful overview Scope Since 1986 Film Genre Reader has been the standard reference and classroom text for the study of genre in film with more than 25 000 copies sold Barry Keith Grant has again revised and updated the book to reflect the most recent developments in genre study This fourth edition adds new essays on genre definition and cycles action movies science fiction and heritage films along with a comprehensive and updated bibliography The volume includes more than thirty essays by some of film's most distinguished critics and scholars of popular cinema including Charles Ram rez Berg John G Cawelti Celestino Deleyto David Desser Thomas Elsaesser Steve Neale Thomas Schatz Paul Schrader Vivian Sobchack Janet Staiger Linda Williams and Robin Wood Modern Love David Shumway,2003-08 My ideas of romance came from the movies said Woody Allen and it is to the movies as well as to novels advice columns and self help books that David Shumway turns for his history of modern love Modern Love argues that a crisis in the meaning and experience of marriage emerged when it lost its institutional function of controlling the distribution of property and instead came to be seen as a locus for feelings of desire togetherness and loss Over the course of the twentieth century partly in response to this crisis a new language of love intimacy emerged not so much replacing but rather coexisting with the earlier language of romance Reading a wide range of texts from early twentieth century advice columns and their late twentieth century antecedent the relationship self help book to Hollywood screwball comedies and from the relationship films of Woody Allen and his successors to contemporary realist novels about marriages Shumway argues that the kinds of stories the culture has told itself have changed Part layperson s history of marriage and romance part meditation on intimacy itself Modern Love will be both amusing and interesting to almost anyone who thinks about relationships and who doesn t Deconstructing Will Smith Willie Tolliver,2022-01-10 Acclaimed actor and rap artist Will Smith has achieved a level of Hollywood fame rarely attained by a Black celebrity Early in his career Smith aspired to be the world s most famous movie star and being named the world s top film attraction in 2008 fulfilled his goal While his rise to a place of worldwide prominence and cultural relevance has made him iconic his accomplishments have not received the full and thorough acknowledgement and analysis they merit This is the first full length critical look at the significance of Will Smith s achievements over a more than 30 year career Many of his films have broken cultural norms by depicting Black men in groundbreaking social settings like the role of the world saving hero in his most popular films In addition to analyzing Smith s filmography this work contextualizes other popular and common portrayals of Black men in media and society Finally this book examines Smith s work in his middle age ruminating on his ability to adapt to the realities of a new Hollywood

Cosmopolitan Culture and Consumerism in Chick Lit Caroline J. Smith,2007-12-12 Cosmopolitan Culture and Consumerism in Chick Lit examines the way in which the popular women s fiction genre of the late 1990s known as chick lit responds to women s advice manuals such as women s magazines self help books romantic comedies and domestic advice manuals Shakespeare's cinema of love R. S. White,2016-10-03 This engaging and stimulating book argues that Shakespeare s plays significantly influenced movie genres in the twentieth century particularly in films concerning love in the classic Hollywood period Shakespeare s green world has a close functional equivalent in tinseltown and on the silver screen as well as in hybrid genres in Bollywood cinema Meanwhile Romeo and Juliet continues to be an enduring source for romantic tragedy on screen The nature of generic indebtedness has not gained recognition because it is elusive and not always easy to recognise The book traces generic links between Shakespeare s comedies of love and screen genres such as romantic comedy screwball comedy and musicals as well as clarifying the use of common conventions defining the genres such as mistaken identity errors disguise and shrew taming Speculative challenging and entertaining the book will appeal to those interested in Shakespeare movies and the representation of love in narratives Humor, Entertainment, and Popular Culture during World War I Clémentine Tholas-Disset, Karen A. Ritzenhoff, 2015-05-06 Humor and entertainment were vital to the war effort during World War I While entertainment provided relief to soldiers in the trenches it also built up support for the war effort on the home front This book looks at transnational war culture by examining seemingly light hearted discourses on the Great War Postmodern Chick Flicks R. Garrett, 2007-04-12 In this extensive analysis of the renewed popularity of the woman s film in the 1990s Roberta Garrett examines melodrama romantic comedy costume drama and female led noirs revealing the way they blend classical and contemporary themes and formal devices The Theme of Class Confrontation in Hollywood's Romantic Comedies, 1934-1942 Sanford Michael Schmidt, 1978
