Parliament. House of Commons. Public Accounts Committee,2009 In this report the Committee of Public Accounts revisits the Prison Service s procurement system five years after publishing a critical report on it 41st report session 2002 03 HC 676 ISBN 9780215012647 The Committee notes that the Service has responded positively and decisively It has implemented a new strategy and introduced a centralised professional procurement team supported by five regional procurement teams and a new information technology system As a direct result of implementing the Committee s recommendations the Service has generated cash savings of 120 million to 2007/08. Whenever problems have been encountered the Service has addressed them promptly including difficulties in phasing in its new computer system. Compliance with laid down procedures is being tightened to ensure that all areas of the Service utilise the procurement system as effectively and efficiently as possible. The Ministry of Justice announced in October 2008 that it is to centralise procurement across the Ministry into a single function which would include the Prison Service. With a potential budget of 2.5 billion the new procurement function offers the opportunity to secure substantial savings.
