Growing Up on the Gridiron Vicki Mayk,2020-09-01 Explores the experience of one young man and the concerns about CTE he helped to illuminate and the cultural allure of football in America that keeps boys trying to make the team despite the dangers Award winning journalist Vicki Mayk raises a critical question for football players and their communities does loving a sport justify risking your life This is the insightful and deeply human story of Owen Thomas a star football player at Penn who took his own life when he was 21 the result of the pain and anguish caused by chronic traumatic encephalopathy CTE It was Owen s landmark case which demonstrated that a player didn t need years of head bashing in the NFL or even multiple sustained brain concussions to cause the mind altering life threatening degenerative disease known as CTE And Owen s case could not have come to light without Dr Ann McKee the neuropathologist who bucked conventional wisdom and the football establishment as she examined Owen s brain and its larger significance building an ever stronger case that said at the very least football should not be played by children under the age of 14 With its focus on a single life and the community touched by it Owen s family his teammates and friends his teachers and coaches and later Dr McKee Growing Up on the Gridiron explores the place of football in our lives It doesn t make a heavy handed argument to abandon the sport Rather it explores why football matters so deeply to many young men and why they continue to take risks despite the evidence of serious long term harm

Burnett,2013-12-03 Derrick entered the door with a big grin He was wearing a Mickey Mouse pullover shirt that stopped at his knees His surfer shorts stopped at about his ankles and he looked even more outlandish with his low cut blue sneakers and blue and green sweat socks My first reaction was to send him back to change his clothes After further thought I decided to give him a lecture and let him be his individual self Again George rapidly hit the door leading the players down the hall with his usual Lets do this fella s The bus loaded up with Colleen handing me a Hall s cough drop as I sat down The cheerleader advisor knew I had been losing my voice due to yelling so much Dave handed me an antacid tablet for later and Lee s wife jumped on the bus to hand the players carrots All the rituals had been completed and the big bus moved out for the 55 mile trip to Pittsburgh The time that I had always wanted to experience as a kid was finally at hand It was a chance to coach at the University of Pittsburgh floor It was a chance to win a gold medal The most important thing though I thought was for a lot of people to change their attitudes about delinquent kids I wanted people to know that these kids were not all bad if you gave them a chance and many would and could succeed As the bus lurched down Interstate 79 I thought that no matter what win or lose these kids had already succeeded , University of Pennsylvania Bulletin University of Pennsylvania, 1929
