Maid For You: An Urban Love Story Latisha Brown, Nzuri was just a bright 19 year old girl who lived in the slums She wished better for herself but with an abusive father holding her back it seems like her dreams are just that Dreams but will help from a special somebody finally make her dreams a reality or will she never wake up Following her throughout life has been the figurative demons called hurt betrayal pain and lies but gaining her own strength and self confidence she has changed those demons into happiness strength stability and even love Of course to get to the end you have to start at the beginning

A Deeper Love Shonia Brown,2002 Coffee will make you black Beauty is skin deep The brown paper bag test Beauty is in the eye of the beholder You re too dark to wear bright colors The mind is a powerful thing Developing negative thoughts through what the mind receives can be detrimental to any human being Paula Travis knows this well because most of her childhood she heard words that destroyed her self esteem and her self love She grew up believing that because of her skin color she was not worthy to love herself or to be loved by another until Angel Angela Reynolds known to her friends as Angel is an aspiring writer who works for a local Atlanta theatre company During a season that people consider the most joyous and loving time of the year Angel finds herself at a lesbian bar on Christmas Eve soaking her wounds in rounds of Cape Cods Her lover of two years has dumped her Angel never expected to meet Paula Travis that night a woman who would change her world forever Through this brief encounter Paula and Angel begin a new relationship and journey towards a deeper love With the help of a few friends these two women search for a place in their hearts and minds where negative beliefs no longer exist and only love prevails

Young Adults in Urban China and Taiwan Désirée Remmert,2019-08-22 This book compares aspirations and life choices among educated young adults in urban China and Taiwan As two places that share a cultural heritage but very different political and economic systems it assesses how the socio economic and political trajectories of China and Taiwan have influenced young people s decision making and the strategies they apply to realize their goals Drawing upon ethnographic research this book analyzes young adults choices in the areas of education career and marriage considering their individual social backgrounds and economic resources In this context it also discusses how feelings of hope doubt and disenchantment are mitigated by the specific societal atmospheres and ideological discourses Whereas stable employment and marriage appeared to be universal goals this book demonstrates how young adults in Beijing had more autonomy in decision making concerning individual life choices than those in Taipei Among other things China s demographic controls and urban migration policies appear to increase the independence of young people from their parents Further the prevalence of boarding school education in China compared to Taiwan provides an opportunity for earlier autonomy for young people in China Taking a comparative approach Young Adults in Urban China and Taiwan will be a valuable resource to students and scholars of Chinese Studies and Taiwan Studies as well as social and cultural anthropology and youth culture
