Civilisations Laurent Binet, 2021 Civilisations is the world as we don't know it set at different points in history it links stories about characters in different places and times all hungry to explore and to acquire power Freydis is a woman warrior and leader of a band of Viking explorers setting out southwards They meet local tribes exchange skills are taken prisoner and get as far as Panama But nobody ultimately knows what became of them Fast forward five hundred years to 1492 and we're reading the journals of Christopher Columbus mid Atlantic on his own famous voyage of exploration to The Americas dreaming of gold and conquest But he and his men are taken captive by Incas Even as their sufferings increase his faith in his superiority and in his mission is unshaken Thirty years later Atahualpa the last Inca emperor arrives in Europe in the ships stolen from Columbus He finds a continent divided by religious and dynastic quarrels the Spanish Inquisition Luther's Reformation capitalism the miracle of the printing press endless warmongering between the ruling monarchies and constant threat from the Turks But most of all he finds downtrodden populations ready for revolution Fortunately he has a recent bestseller as a guidebook to acquiring power Machiavelli's The Prince The stage is set for a Europe ruled by Incas and

Aztecs and for a great war that will change history forever Civilisations is nothing less than a strangely believable counterfactual history of the modern world fizzing with ideas about colonisation empire building and the eternal human quest for domination It is an electrifying novel by one of Europe s most exciting writers Civilizations Laurent Binet,2021-09-14 An ambitious and highly entertaining novel of revisionist history from the author of the international bestseller HHhH Laurent Binet s Civilizations is nothing less than a strangely believable counterfactual history of the modern world fizzing with ideas about colonization empire building and the eternal human quest for domination It is an electrifying novel by one of Europe s most exciting writers Freydis is a woman warrior and leader of a band of Viking explorers setting out to the south They meet local tribes exchange skills are taken prisoner and get as far as Panama But nobody ultimately knows what became of them Fast forward five hundred years to 1492 and we re reading the journals of Christopher Columbus mid Atlantic on his own famous voyage of exploration to the Americas dreaming of gold and conquest But he and his men are taken captive by Incas Even as their suffering increases his faith in his superiority and in his mission is unshaken Thirty years later Atahualpa the last Inca emperor arrives in Europe in the ships stolen from Columbus He finds a continent divided by religious and dynastic quarrels the Spanish Inquisition Luther s Reformation capitalism the miracle of the printing press endless warmongering between the ruling monarchies and constant threat from the Turks But most of all he finds downtrodden populations ready for revolution Fortunately he has a recent bestseller as a guidebook to acquiring power Machiavelli s The Prince The stage is set for a Europe ruled by Incas and Aztecs and for a great war that will change history forever Perspectives Laurent Binet,2026-01-29 Florence New Year s Day 1557 As dawn breaks a painter is discovered lying on the floor of a church stabbed through the heart Above him the paintings he laboured over for more than a decade At his home a hidden painting scandalously depicting Maria de Medici daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Florence as a naked Venus Who is the murderer Who is behind the painting As the city erupts in chaos Giorgio Vasari the great art historian is picked to lead the investigation Letters fly back and forth carrying news of political plots and speculation about the killer s identity between Maria and her aunt Catherine de Medici the queen of France between Catherine and her scheming agents in Florence and between Vasari and his friend Michelangelo Meanwhile the Pope is banning books and branding works of art immoral And the truth when it comes to light is as shocking as the bold new artworks that have made Florence the red hot centre of Europe Bursting with characters and colour Perspectives is a mystery like no other that shows us Renaissance Florence as we ve never seen it before a dazzling hugely entertaining novel of court machinations murder and art Trauma & Memory Christine Berberich,2021-03-31 Over the past decades the memory of the Holocaust has not only become a common cultural consciousness but also a cultural property shared by people all over the world This collection brings together academics critics and creative practitioners from the fields of Holocaust Studies Literature History Media Studies Creative Writing and German Studies to discuss contemporary trends in Holocaust commemoration and representation in literature film TV the entertainment industry and social media The essays in this trans disciplinary collection debate how contemporary culture engages with the legacy of the Holocaust now that 75 years on from the end of the Second World War the number of actual survivors is dwindling It engages with ongoing cultural debates in Holocaust Studies that have seen a development from largely testimonial presentations of the Holocaust to more fictional narratives both in literature and film In addition to a number of chapters focusing in particular on literary trends in Holocaust representation the collection also assesses other forms of cultural production surrounding the Holocaust ranging from recent official memorialisation in Germany to Holocaust presentation in film computer games and social media The collection also highlights the contributions by creative practitioners such as writers and performers who use drama and the traditional art of storytelling in order to keep memories alive and pass them on to new generations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History

The Beauty of a Social Problem Walter Benn Michaels, 2015-07-13 Bertolt Brecht once worried that our sympathy for the victims of a social problem can make the problem's beauty and attraction invisible In The Beauty of a Social Problem Walter Benn Michaels explores the effort to overcome this difficulty through a study of several contemporary artist photographers whose work speaks to questions of political economy Although he discusses well known figures like Walker Evans and Jeff Wall Michaels's focus is on a group of younger artists including Viktoria Binschok Phil Chang Liz Deschenes and Arthur Ou All born after 1965 they have always lived in a world where on the one hand artistic ambition has been synonymous with the critique of autonomous form and intentional meaning while on the other the struggle between capital and labor has essentially been won by capital Contending that the aesthetic and political conditions are connected Michaels argues that these artists' new commitment to form and meaning is a way for them to depict the conditions that have taken US economic inequality from its lowest level in 1968 to its highest level today As Michaels demonstrates these works of art unimaginable without the postmodern critique of autonomy and intentionality end up departing and dissenting from that critique in continually interesting and innovative ways

The Brief Life & Mysterious Death of Boris III, King of Bulgaria Sasha Wilson, Joseph Cullen, 2024-05-06 Your country sir Your people Your responsibility It rather does fall to you to make things right Clean up your father's mess Winner of the 2023 Off West End Best Ensemble Award Runner Up for the 2023 BBC Writersroom Popcorn Award for Best New Writing Winner of the 2020 VAULT Festival Origins Award The year is 1943 and Bulgaria has just told Hitler where to stick it Europe's major powers are at war and King Boris III must choose a side or be swept away A raucous and poignant tale in which a bunch of underdogs use every trick in the book to outwit the Nazis and save nearly 50 000 Jewish lives Award winning Out Of The Forest Theatre's irreverent comedy featuring live music inspired by Bulgarian and Jewish folk tunes tells the incredible true story that the world forgot This is a unique story in 20th century European history Prepare to be enthralled as The Brief Life Mysterious Death of Boris III King of Bulgaria weaves a tale that delves deep into history leaving you both informed and spellbound This edition was

The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James, 2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first. Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive. Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents. In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel. Analyzing works by authors including Gide, Breton, Aragon, Yourcenar, Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality. The document is a textual, visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion, textual transcription or description within a literary work. It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature's confrontation with the real. The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself. At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts.

The 7th Function of Language Laurent Binet, 2017-05-04 One of the funniest, most riotously inventive and enjoyable novels you'll read this year. Observer. The most outrageously entertaining novel of the year. A joy. Philip Hensher. Roland Barthes is knocked down in a Paris street by a laundry van. It's February 1980 and he has just come from lunch with Francois Mitterrand, a slippery politician locked in a battle for the Presidency. Barthes dies soon afterwards. History tells us it was an accident. But what if it were an assassination? What if Barthes was carrying a document of unbelievable global importance? A document explaining the seventh function of language, an idea so powerful it gives whoever masters it the ability to convince anyone in any situation to do anything. Police Captain Jacques Bayard and his reluctant accomplice Simon Herzog set off on a chase that takes them from the corridors of power and academia to backstreet saunas and midnight rendezvous. What they discover is a worldwide conspiracy involving the President, murderous Bulgarians and a secret international debating society. In the world of intellectuals and politicians everyone is a suspect. Who can you trust when the idea of truth itself is at stake.

Rammstein on Fire John T. Littlejohn, Michael T. Putnam, 2013-10-11 This volume contains 13 original essays exploring Rammstein's stage performance and recorded works from multiple academic perspectives. Topics range from Rammstein's connection with 19th century German literature and their East German heritage to cannibalism and the supernatural. The panoramic view of approaches to Rammstein's music and performance goes beneath the surface and provides fan and scholar alike with a deeper appreciation for the band.

Multiple Narratives, Versions

and Truth in the Contemporary Novel Nicholas Frangipane, 2019-10-22 Multiple Narratives Versions and Truth in the Contemporary Novel considers the shifting perception of truth in fiction Nicholas Frangipane examines the narrative technique of telling multiple versions of the same sets of events presenting both true and false versions of the events within a fictional work This book looks closely at these Reflexive Double Narratives in order to understand the way many contemporary writers have attempted to work past postmodernism without forgetting its lessons Frangipane explores how writers like Ian McEwan Yann Martel and Alice Munro have departed from the radical experimentation of their predecessors and instead make sincere attempts to find ways that fictional writing can reveal enduring truths and in so doing redefine the meaning of truth itself and signal the emergence of post postmodernism Lessons and Legacies XII Wendy Lower, Lauren Faulkner Rossi, 2017-02-15 Lessons and Legacies XII explores new directions in research and teaching in the field of Holocaust studies The essays in this volume present the most cutting edge methods and topics shaping Holocaust studies today from a variety of disciplines forensics environmental history cultural studies religious studies labor history film studies history of medicine sociology pedagogy and public history This rich compendium reveals how far Holocaust studies have reached into cultural studies perpetrator history and comparative genocide history Scholars laypersons teachers and the myriad organizations devoted to Holocaust memorialization and education will find these essays useful and illuminating

Reading the Contemporary Author Aliso Gibbons, 2023 The Victoria System Eric Reinhardt, 2013-07-04 The Victoria System is Eric Reinhardt s acclaimed and controversial French bestseller LONGLISTED FOR THE IMPAC DUBLIN

LITERARY AWARD NOMINATED FOR THE PRIX GONCOURT THE PRIX RENAUDOT AND THE GRAND PRIX DU ROMAN DE L'ACADEMIE FRANCAISE David Kolski never sleeps with the same woman twice apart from his wife Then he meets Victoria Head of people at a multinational company by day she is a ruthless executive in a lightning paced high pressured whirlwind of power and productivity By night she likes good wine luxurious hotel rooms and abandoning herself to her sexual fantasies David is soon addicted Under crushing pressure at work to oversee the construction of a huge Paris tower block in near impossible circumstances he takes new vigour and inspiration from his hard headed capitalist lover He works harder faster and better and then escapes to indulge in the most intense sexual passion he s ever experienced But when Victoria offers to use her position to help him in his career a dark shadow falls over their affair Is she really capable of helping anyone other than herself or is she hiding something from him And who are the two men in the Audi he keeps seeing always a few cars behind him Complex compelling and ambitiously structured The Victoria System is a daringly sensual story of an obsession Part erotica part thriller part novel of ideas like a series of slightly angled mirrors held up to our globalised capitalist society the twists and turns of its narrative create a dazzling interplay of reflections and compel us to question the assumptions and forces of our modern world Dark twisted and devastating A big novel of amorous adventures in the era of the blackberry Eric Reinhardt is the new Alexandre Dumas Nouvel Observateur Erotic raw violent and vertiginous We often accuse French writers of navel gazing and ignoring the world around them but Eric Reinhardt is one of those who gives the lie to this cliché Emmanuel Carrère author of Limonov Part classic part tragedy part thriller Eric Reinhardt merges genres and invokes elusive echoes in this highly contemporary novel of a rare depth Libération The Victoria System is a fantastic and sensual modern thriller like nothing I've ever read Christian Louboutin A powerful novel about the philosophical and moral consequences of ultra liberalism and a subtle reflection on the urges of the powerful Marianne ric Reinhardt is one of the rising stars of French literature He is the author of five novels and also a freelance publisher of art books He lives and works in Paris The Victoria System was first published in French in 2011 and was nominated for the Prix Goncourt the Prix Renaudot and the Grand Prix du Roman de l'Académie Française It is ric Reinhardt's first novel to be translated into English Sam Taylor is the English language translator of HHhH by Laurent Binet and the author of the novels The Island at the End of the World The Amnesiac and The Republic of Trees He lives in France and the United States

The Martins David Foenkinos, 2025-10-28 A wryly funny story about a struggling Parisian writer who finds the heroine of his next novel right outside his apartment Foenkinos is at his best in this playful novel Elle A charming clever book The Independent Is it true that every life is the stuff of novels Or are some people just too ordinary This is the question a struggling Parisian writer asks when he challenges himself to write about the first person he sees when he steps outside his apartment Secretly hoping to meet the beautiful woman who occasionally smokes on his street he instead sets eyes on octogenarian Madeleine She's happy to become the subject of his project but first she needs to put her shopping away Is it really true the writer wonders that every life is the stuff of novels or is his story doomed to be hopelessly banal As he gets to know Madeleine and her family he ll be privy to their secrets lost loves marital problems and workplace worries And he ll soon realise he is not the impartial bystander he intended to be but a catalyst for major changes in the lives of his characters Told with Foenkinos s characteristic irony and self deprecating humour yet filled with warmth The Martins is a compelling tale of the family next door which raises questions about what it means to be ordinary and about the blurred lines between truth and fiction Light yet profound it s another deeply charming story by this beloved French author

Unreliable Narration and Trustworthiness Vera Nünning, 2015-02-24 Though the phenomenon known as unreliable narration or narrative unreliability has received a lot of attention during the last two decades narratological research has mainly focused on its manifestations in narrative fiction particularly in homodiegetic or first person narration Except for film forms and functions of unreliable narration in other genres media and disciplines have so far been relatively neglected The present volume redresses the balance by directing scholarly attention to disciplines and domains that narratology has so far largely ignored It aims at initiating an interdisciplinary approach to and debate on narrative unreliability exploring unreliable narration in a broad range of literary genres other media and non fictional text types contexts and disciplines beyond literary studies Crossing the boundaries between genres media and disciplines the volume acknowledges that the question of whether or not to believe or trust a narrator transcends the field of literature The issues of unreliability and untrustworthiness play a crucial role in many areas of human life as well as a wide spectrum of academic fields ranging from law to history and from psychology to the study of culture
