Be Quick - But Don't Hurry Andrew Hill, John Wooden, 2002-04-22 Be Quick But Don t Hurry presents the team building management secrets of the greatest coach of the twentieth century cloaked in the heartwarming tale of the reluctant protege who learned those secrets in spite of himself Perhaps the least controversial sports honor in living memory was the selection of John Wooden as Coach of the Century by ESPN honoring his ten NCAA basketball championships in a twelve year stretch His UCLA teams won with great centers and with small lineups with superstars and with team effort always with quickness always with class Wooden was a teacher first and foremost and his lessons taught on the basketball court but applicable throughout one s life are summarized in his famed Pyramid of Success Andrew Hill was one of the lucky young men who got to learn from Wooden in his favored classroom though that is hardly how Hill would have described it at the time An all city high school player in Los Angeles Hill played a little on three national champions from 1970 to 1972 Hill was left embittered by his experience at UCLA he was upset at how unequally Wooden treated his starting players and his substitutes Hill went on to a successful career in television rising to the presidency of CBS Productions where he was responsible for the success of such popular series as Touched by an Angel and Dr Quinn Medicine Woman Hill s job required him to manage many creative people with the egos and insecurities that usually go along with such talents And one day some twenty five years after he graduated he was hit with the realization that everything he knew about getting the best out of people he had learned directly from Coach John Wooden With no small trepidation Hill picked up the phone to call and thank his old coach and unexpected mentor To his surprise Wooden greeted him warmly and enthusiastically A strong friendship sealed in frequent visits and conversations ensued and endures Be Quick But Don t Hurry tells the story of that friendship But it also shares the lessons and secrets that Hill learned from Coach Wooden which hold the key to managing creatively in the idea driven economy of the twenty first century Among those lessons are The team with the best players almost always wins Be quick but don t hurry there is never enough time to be sure and if you are sure you re probably too late but you must always keep your balance Failing to prepare is preparing to fail The team that makes the most mistakes wins Full of sound advice and warm reminiscence Be Quick But Don t Hurry is the management book of a lifetime
