Bibliographic Guide to Music Gale Group, 2001-07 Music and the Silent Film Martin Miller Marks, 1997-02-13 In this book a leading authority on film music examines scores of the silent film era The first of three projected volumes investigating music written for films this thoughtful and pathbreaking study demonstrates the richness of silent film music as it details the way in which scores were often planned from the start as an integral part of the whole cinematic experience Following an introductory chapter that outlines several key theoretical questions and surveys eight decades of writing on film music Martin Miller Marks focuses on those scores created between 1895 and 1924 He begins by considering two early examples one German written by persons unknown for Skladanowsky's Bioskop exhibitions in 1895 and 1896 and one French scored by Camille Saint Saëns for the 1908 film L'Assassinat du Duc de Guise Subsequent chapters fully discuss Walter Cleveland Simon's music for the American film An Arabian Tragedy 1912 as well as the Joseph Breil accompaniment to D W Griffith's Birth of a Nation 1915 As described in this book Breil's memorable score though a compilation derived from many sources was played by an orchestra as Griffith's sweeping images filled the screen thus contributing significantly to the great film's success while also achieving remarkable power in its own right Marks then concludes with a look at Erik Satie's witty and innovative music for the French film Entr'acte 1924 which was the first film score of consequence by an avant garde composer Giving unprecedented attention to a vibrant important and oft neglected facet of twentieth century music Music and the Silent Film will interest scholars of film theory film history modern music and modern aesthetics

Knowing the Score David Morgan, 2013-04-16 This collection of interviews with Hollywood composers offers the most intimate look ever at the process of writing music for the movies From getting started in the business to recording the soundtrack from choosing a musical style to collaborating with directors including Martin Scorsese Stanley Kubrick the Coen brothers Terry Gilliam Kenneth Branagh and Ken Russell from learning to deal with editing to writing with time sensitive precision the leading practitioners in the field share their views on one of the most important and least understood aspects of filmmaking the motion picture art that's heard but not seen Mavis Gallant Marta Dvorak, 2019-11-04 With a confidante's insights Marta Dvo k sets up an innovative connection between Mavis Gallant's dazzling writing and the whole spectrum of the arts She simultaneously engages with the feats of art making and the adventures of reading looking and listening

Drawing on private correspondence and conversations with the Gallant she repositions as a late modernist Dvo k investigates the relationships between the Paris based master of the short story and visual and sound culture Through the filter of philosophical aesthetics she identifies the painterly cinematic and musical dynamics which light up Gallant s craft At the same time she opens a dialogue between Gallant and other international modernists and with those they were reading watching and listening to from the moving pictures which shaped Gallant s generation to the rhythm and dissonance of say Stravinsky and jazz which like the Cubist rupture with spatial perspective spearheaded modernity s aesthetics of breakage How does Gallant s work work Dvo k s hands on rhetorical analyses of Gallant s stories and lesser known recently reissued novels illuminate the superb stylist s language and vision via an emphasis on both image and rhythm Providing keys to Gallant s famous sleights of hand and tonal shifts the discussions reveal a fictional world as multidimensional as a Cubist picture or a symphony depending on whether we lean towards the eye or the ear
