Sexual Education Around the World - Past, Present and Future Issues Rogena Sterling, 2023-09-13 Sexual education is a worldwide concern that intersects with various attitudes values and cultural norms It is an area of life that has for many years been kept private but now there is recognition that there is a need to support people especially young people in modern societies The way sexual education is taught and applied within institutions shapes the way we understand and approach human sexuality Various societies have chosen various means to provide sexual education both at school and to the wider society There is still much more development and support needed however We can begin to identify strategies for overcoming challenges in sex education promoting healthier attitudes and empowering individuals to make informed decisions about their own bodies and relationships This book is organized into three sections The first section focuses on issues in sexual education such as sexual harassment sexuality and relationship education and advocacy by people with disabilities future challenges and sex differences in physical attractiveness The second section focuses on the means of sexual health education interventions including the use of technology The last section includes a chapter on sex education and the invisibility of intersex people in the curriculum

Facing the Unknown Future Ina ter Avest, Cok Bakker, Julia Ipgrave, Silke Leonhard, Peter Schreiner, 2020 During the 20 year history of the European Network for Religious Education through Contextual Approaches ENRECA several books have been published on the subject of Religious Education from sociological psychological or anthropological perspectives and always in the contextual settings of national educational frameworks and other specific culturally bound phenomena Also very often an international comparative perspective was included The shared goal was not so much to reflect on religion as such and on its changing doctrines institutions and prescriptions but to try and understand religion in the specific European contexts of secularization and the plurality of life orientations and to understand how religion becomes manifest in education in a variety of concrete policies and classroom practices reflecting various social issues This volume marking the 20th anniversary of ENRECA has a specific focus on the contextual dimension of time
