background of China's rapidly growing and sometimes highly controversial activities in Africa, this book is among the first of its kind to systematically document Sino-African interactions at the everyday level. Based on sixteen months of ethnographic fieldwork at two contrasting sites in Lusaka, Zambia: a Chinese state-sponsored educational farm and a private Chinese family farm, Di Wu focuses on daily interactions among Chinese migrants and their Zambian hosts. Daily communicative events, e.g., banquets, market negotiations, workplace disputes, and various social encounters across a range of settings, are used to trace the essential role that emotion and affect play in forming and reproducing social relations and group identities among Chinese migrants. Wu suggests that affective encounters in everyday situations, as well as failed attempts to generate affect, should not be overlooked in order to fully appreciate Sino-African interactions. Deeply researched and with rich ethnographic detail, this book will be relevant to scholars of anthropology, international development, and others interested in Sino-African relations.

Indigenous Intergenerational Resilience Lewis Williams, 2021-11-04 This book argues that there is a need to develop greater indigenous led intergenerational resilience in order to meet the challenges posed by contemporary crises of climate change cultural clashes and adversity In today s media the climate crisis is kept largely separate and distinct from the violent cultural clashes unfolding on the grounds of religion and migration but each is similarly symptomatic of the erasure of the human connection to place and the accompanying tensions between generations and cultures This book argues that both forms of crisis are intimately related under scored and driven by the structures of white supremacy which at their most immediate and visible manifest as the discipline of black bodies and at more fundamental and far reaching proportions are about the power privilege and patterns of thinking associated with but no longer exclusive to white people In the face of such crisis it is essential to bring the experience and wisdom of Elders and traditional knowledge keepers together with the contemporary realities and vision of youth This book s inclusive and critical perspective on Indigenous led intergenerational resilience will be valuable to Indigenous and non Indigenous interdisciplinary scholars working on human ecological resilience A Companion to Fritz Lang Joe McElhaney, 2015-01-27 A Companion to Fritz Lang Fritz Lang's movie making spans a major part of the history of cinema across genres styles and national contexts With smartness and sharpness the essays in this essential volume come from many angles to capture the richness of Lang's cinema and bring great insight to its study Dana Polan Cinema Studies NYU Fritz Lang's influence on cinema cannot be overstated with a career that stretched from the silent era in Germany to the decline of the Hollywood studio system in the late 1950s from the Weimar Republic to Nazi Germany from Depression America to the McCarthy era One of the best known migrants from Germany's school of Expressionism Lang is also credited with influencing the emergence of film noir A Companion to Fritz Lang offers the first full scale collection of scholarship available in English on one of the most important filmmakers of all time Addressing much of Lang's voluminous body of work from Metropolis and M to lesser known titles such as Western Union and Clash by Night this volume offers a superb overview of Lang's cinema with revealing insights into his enduring influence on directors such as Godard Scorsese Chabrol and Tarantino The two dozen essays presented here are an unrivaled and up to the minute assessment of the prolific and resilient life and vision of one of cinema's greatest auteurs Gracious Forgiveness Cristian F. Mihut, 2023-03-14 Divine forgiveness is expressed in biblical and liturgical contexts through a variety of metaphors canceling debts covering stains forgoing or stopping litigation forgetting iniquities and more In this study Cristian F Mihut retrieves a theologically paradigmatic liturgically deep and symbolically evocative image of divine forgiveness that has received little attention bearing burdens Gracious Forgiveness A Theological Retrieval articulates a divine disposition to forgive starting from this metaphor Embedded in a larger covenantal relational framework where sin is a cosmic sickness humans are targets of divine healing and divine transcendence is expressed through inexhaustible gracious commitments to redress brokenness divine forgivingness finds its most lucid tangible and full expression in the life and work of Jesus Christ In the person of Jesus Christ we see most clearly how a gracious God is committed to separating sinners from their sin and how God heals people by absorbing into God's own being the consequences of their offense A second main argument of the book is that sin bearing Christological forgivingness has ethical and relational ramifications The study articulates a human disposition to forgive forgivingness that involves both a certain conception of one's participation in Christ and a certain formation of one's sensibility Entrenching forgivingness depends at once on developing gracious hopeful and merciful dispositions but also on seeing oneself as a continuant of God's cosmic story of redressing brokenness Mihut concludes with a defense of the surprising claim that curative forgivingness is compatible with anger and even recommended to people living under oppression Bonhoeffer Petra Brown, 2019-01-04 Theologian Conspirator Martyr Saint Dietrich Bonhoeffer was killed in the waning days of World War II having been implicated in the July 20th assassination attempt on Hitler Since his death Bonhoeffer's life and writings have inspired contradictory responses He is often seen as a model for Christian pacifist resistance and more recently for violent direct political action Bonhoeffer's name has been invoked by violent anti abortion protestors as well as political leaders calling for support on a war on terror in the aftermath of 9 11 Petra Brown critically analyses Bonhoeffer s writing preceding and during his conspiracy involvement particularly his recurring concept of the extraordinary Brown examines this idea in light of the state of exception a concept coined by the one time Nazi jurist and political theorist Carl Schmitt She also draws on the existentialist philosopher S ren Kierkegaard to consider what happens when discipleship is understood as obedience to a divine command This book aims to complicate an unreflective admiration of Bonhoeffer s decision for conspiracy and draws attention to the potentially dangerous implications of his emerging political theology
