Cry Heaven, Cry Hell Howard Gordon, 2014-06-20 In Cry Heaven Cry Hell the author tries to open our eyes to show that even with good intentions roads can be paved to Hell The story follows three men who lived evil ways and then repented Two of the men die but one remains to either be held accountable for what they all did or to have their repentant behavior be figured into the yardstick of their collective judgment The three men are 1 An Irishman who wipes out an entire family and flees Ireland 2 A descendant of an Amer Indian ally of France who aided France in the French Indian War and who is seeking revenge against her for a betrayal and 3 An American Indian whose bitter life on a reservation was interrupted by adoption into a wealthy Boston family and seeks revenge against the white man by using the weakness of greed just as the white man used the genetic difficulty the Indians had for alcohol against him If we are indeed the guardians of Democracy then let us guard it and not fall asleep on our laurels or let the impersonal doctrines of guilt and innocence that we invent to hide our anger from ourselves take over the responsibility of making not only just but also morally responsible decisions for all the decisions we make go further than the courtroom They enter into our professional family and neighborly lives as well A truly thought provoking must read
