English And Arabic Calendar 2014

Editors of Chase's Calendar of Events

English And Arabic Calendar 2014:

The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Translation Sameh Hanna, Hanem El-Farahaty, Abdel-Wahab Khalifa, 2019-12-09

Translation related activities from and into Arabic have significantly increased in the last few years in both scope and scale. The launch of a number of national translation projects, policies and awards in a number of Arab countries together with the increasing translation from Arabic in a wide range of subject areas outside the Arab World especially in the aftermath of the Arab Spring have complicated and diversified the dynamics of the translation industry involving Arabic. The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Translation seeks to explicate Arabic translation practice, pedagogy and scholarship with the aim of producing a state of the art reference book that maps out these areas and meets the pedagogical and research needs of advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as active researchers. Channeling Moroccanness Becky L. Schulthies, 2020-12-01 Honorable Mention 2022 L. Carl Brown AIMS Book Prize in North African Studies What does it mean to connect as a people through mass media? This book approaches that question by exploring how Moroccans engage communicative failure as they seek to shape social and political relations in urban Fez. Over the last decade, laments of language and media failure in Fez have focused not just on social relations that used to be and have been lost but also on what ought to be and had yet to be realized. Such laments have transpired in a range of communication channels from objects such as devotional prayer beads and remote controls to interactional forms such as storytelling, dress styles and orthography to media platforms like television news, religious stations or WhatsApp group chats. Channeling Moroccanness examines these laments as ways of speaking that created Moroccanness, the feeling of participating in the ongoing formations of Moroccan relationality. Rather than furthering the discourse about Morocco's conflict between liberal secularists and religious conservatives, this ethnography shows the subtle range of ideologies and practices evoked in Fassi homes to calibrate Moroccan sociality and political consciousness.

Rhet Ops Jim Ridolfo, William Hart-Davidson, 2019-10-03 In this edited volume, authors seek to document and analyze how state and non-state actors leverage digital rhetoric as a twenty-first century weapon of war. Rhet Ops offer readers a chance to focus on the human dimension of rhetorical practice within mobile technologies and social networks to reflect not only on the durable question of what it means to conduct oneself ethically as a speaker or writer but also what it means to learn the art of rhetoric as a means to engage adversaries in war and conflict.

The Qur'an and Normative Religious Pluralism Arif Kemil Abdullah, 2014-01-01 In a multi faith world Islam is widely regarded as dogmatic and exclusivist Yet in the Qur an we have a great and worthy example of how to live in diversity of powerful scriptural tenets that lend themselves precisely to engagement with those of other faiths As such Islam has much to add to the debate on Religious Pluralism For Muslims the issue is a delicate one Aside from being tolerant and respectful of other faiths advocating freedom of faith and peaceful coexistence for all humanity Muslims have to intellectually engage on matters of religious truth whilst defending the validity of their own Islamic tenets This study is focused on the Qur anic text It explores the Qur anic conception of normative religious pluralism with a view to providing answers to questions such as whether the Qur'an itself regards normative religious pluralism as a value system or simply a method through which the Qur'anic world view can be actualized. In doing so the author corrects some highly controversial misquoted mistranslated and or quoted out of context verses of the Qur'an including the so called verse of the sword and the perception of not taking non Muslims as friends. In reality the Qur'an calls for freedom of faith and peaceful coexistence but condemns oppression religious persecution and those who initiate hostilities. In this way it not only invokes human dignity but restores it when it is violated.

Islamic State in Australia Rodger Shanahan, 2022-12-30 This book fills a gap in our knowledge about the activities of Western supporters and members of Islamic State by examining the experience of their Australian cohort. More than 200 Australian men women and children travelled to Syria and Iraq to fight with Islamist groups and to help establish an Islamic State by force. Dozens more assisted Islamic State by supporting those overseas or by planning or carrying out terrorist attacks in Australia. For all that little is publicly known about the impact of the Syrian conflict on Australia's radical Islamists This book provides a well researched examination of how and why so many Australians travelled to fight for or otherwise supported Islamic State From the failed attempt to bring down an Etihad passenger plane en route from Sydney to Abu Dhabi to showing their children holding the heads of Syrian soldiers Australians were prominent in carrying out Islamic State s directions Using a range of Australian and foreign court records social and mainstream media content this book provides the first detailed look at who these people were what tasks they carried out how they came to adopt this radical view of Islam and what long term legal and security implications are likely to result from their actions This book will be of interest to students of terrorism political Islam and security studies

Scandalous Error C. Philipp E. Nothaft,2018-02-16 The Gregorian calendar reform of 1582 which provided the basis for the civil and Western ecclesiastical calendars still in use today has often been seen as a triumph of early modern scientific culture or an expression of papal ambition in the wake of the Counter Reformation Much less attention has been paid to reform s intellectual roots in the European Middle Ages when the reckoning of time by means of calendrical cycles was a topic of central importance to learned culture as impressively documented by the survival of relevant texts and tables in thousands of manuscripts copied before 1500 For centuries prior to the Gregorian reform astronomers mathematicians theologians and even Church councils had been debating the necessity of improving or emending the existing ecclesiastical calendar which throughout the Middle Ages kept losing touch with the astronomical phenomena at an alarming pace Scandalous Error is the first comprehensive study of the medieval literature devoted to the calendar problem and its cultural and scientific contexts It examines how the importance of ordering liturgical time by means of a calendar that comprised both solar and lunar components posed a technical astronomical problem to medieval society and details the often sophisticated ways in which computists and churchmen reacted to this challenge By drawing attention to the numerous connecting paths that existed between calendars and mathematical astronomy between the Fall of Rome and the end of the fifteenth century the volume offers substantial new insights on the place of exact science in medieval culture

Language and Muslim Immigrant Childhoods Inmaculada Ma García-Sánchez,2014-06-03 Language and Muslim Immigrant Childhoods Documenting the everyday lives of Moroccan immigrant children in Spain this in depth study considers how its subjects navigate the social and political landscapes of family neighborhood peer groups and the institutions of their adopted country Garc a S nchez compels us to rethink theories of language and racialization by offering a linguistic anthropological approach that illuminates the politics of childhood in Spain s growing communities of migrants The author demonstrates that these Moroccan children walk a tightrope between sameness and difference

simultaneously participating in the cultural life of their immigrant community and that of a host society that is deeply ambivalent about contemporary migratory trends The author evaluates the contemporary state of research on immigrant children and explores the dialectical relations between young Moroccan immigrants everyday social interactions and the broader cultural logic and socio political discourses arising from integration and inclusion of the Muslim communities Her work focuses in particular on children s modes of communication with teachers peers family members friends doctors and religious figures in a society where Muslim immigrants are subject to increasing state surveillance The project underscores the central relevance of studying immigrant children s day to day experience and linguistic praxis in tracing how the forces at work in transnational diasporic settings have an impact on their sense of belonging charting the links between the immediate contexts of their daily lives and their emerging processes of identification
