A large family bands together pooling resources to elevate their golden years and live a far greater lifestyle together than any of the sisters and cousins could experience individually. An attorney and close companion of the extended family forms a family trust which protects and enhances their last decades on this earth. The novel reveals love and companionship on a higher plane one shared by the witty fun loving elderly. In Family Trust a mixed bag of love laughter and arguments over whether their favorite dance is the Carolina shag or the Birmingham bop keeps the reader laughing out loud. A rehab suicide a hurricane and a justified murder at sea add suspense and danger to a thought provoking plan for a beautiful old age. Grown children present problems that bring cousins together to stand in the gap and eventually prepare the stage for another generation of family trusts. Jealousy is always an element when beautiful women of any age are in the equation. A grocery store battle in the produce aisle and a volunteer dog bathing job in a rescue shelter could have been written for Lucille Ball. Ray a Nashville singer and songwriter famous for Don't Make Cadillacs Like They Used To is the youngest cousin to commit to the family trust. In her sixties she writes Dancin' to Heaven to tell the world to dance and sing every day with the people they love. Surrounded by family who know each other better than anyone the cousins and a few spouses enjoy a grand lifestyle via family pod living.
