Musings of a Caribbean Professor Dion E. Phillips, 2019-06-24 Musings of a Caribbean Professor is a compilation of over 50 articles on Caribbean concerns that were previously published in newspapers across the Caribbean during the 34 year sojourn of its author while a professor of sociology at the University of the Virgin Islands. It is a treasure of information on select outstanding and lesser known personalities including Marcus Garvey. Such topics as China Caribbean relations, Cuba in the Caribbean, legalization of marijuana, crime, juvenile delinquency, suicide, healthy marriages, corruption in government, Catholicism and Cuba and other pithy ones including the popular festival of Carnival are addressed. Also in the tenth subsection of the volume, three human interest concerns, namely aging, retirement as well as death and its aftermath are addressed. Even two thought provoking pieces entitled Seeing Islam through Christian Eyes and The Mystery of Evil are included. As can be expected, three submissions on the military and security in Barbados Caribbean Dion's research specializations are grafted in. Art and Political Thought in Medieval England, C. 1150-1350 Laura Slater (Lecturer in history of art), 2018. An exploration of how power and political society were imagined, represented and reflected on in medieval English art. Images and imagery played a major role in medieval political thought and culture but their influence has rarely been explored. This book provides a full assessment of the subject. Starting with an examination of the writings of late twelfth century courtier clerics and their new vision of English political life as a heightened religious drama, it argues that visual images were key to the development and expression of medieval English political ideas and arguments. It discusses the vivid pictorial metaphors used in contemporary political treatises and highlights their interaction with public decorative schemas in English great churches, private devotional imagery, seal iconography, illustrations of English history and a range of other visual sources. Meanwhile, through an exploration of events such as the Thomas Becket conflict, the making of Magna Carta, the Barons War and the deposition of Edward II, it provides new perspectives on the political role of art, especially in reshaping basic assumptions and expectations about government and political society in medieval England. Enter The Body Carol Chillington Rutter, 2002-09-11. Enter the Body offers a series of provocative case studies of the work women's bodies do on Shakespeare's intensely body-conscious stage. Rutter's topics are sex, death, race, gender, culture, politics and the excessive performative body that exceeds the playtext it inhabits. As well as drawing upon vital primary documents from Shakespeare's day, Rutter offers close readings of women's performances on stage and film in Britain today, from Peggy Ashcroft's white Cleopatra and Whoopi Goldberg's whiteface African Queen to Sally Dexter's languorous Helen.

Chaplin, 2017-11-07 This book is a sweeping global and intellectual history that radically recasts our understanding of Malthus's Essay on the Principle of Population the most famous book on population ever written or ever likely to be Malthus's Essay is also persistently misunderstood First published anonymously in 1798 the Essay systematically argues that population growth tends to outpace its means of subsistence unless kept in check by factors such as disease famine or war or else by lowering the birth rate through such means as sexual abstinence Challenging the widely held notion that Malthus's Essay was a product of the British and European context in which it was written Alison Bashford and Joyce Chaplin demonstrate that it was the new world as well as the old that fundamentally shaped Malthus's ideas      The Charter and By-laws of the New York Historical Society New-York Historical Society, 1875      The American Florist ,1925      Hendricks' Commercial Register of the United States for Buyers and Sellers ,1916      The Institute Tie ,1902      Florist & Nursery Exchange ,1889      Masonic Standard ,1914      The Adventures of Roderick Random ...
