terrorism has become the jus cogens norm of our time. She further considers the impact of the status of the prohibition of terrorism as a jus cogens norm on other norms of international law relevant in the fight against terrorism namely the prohibition of torture, the right to a fair trial and the prohibition of the inter state use of force. Law at War: The Law as it Was and the Law as it Should Be Ola Engdahl, Pål Wrange, 2009-01-31. The authors of this volume have been inspired by the scholar to which this Liber Amicorum is dedicated Professor Ove Bring to look into both the past and the future of international law. Like Ove Bring they have dealt with many aspects of the law governing the use of force from arms control to human rights international criminal law the UN Charter and of course international humanitarian law. Like Professor Bring they have allowed themselves to draw trajectories from history and into the future and have shunned away from neither the controversial nor the speculative be it on the Middle East the invasion of Iraq or the independence of Kosovo. This collection brings together insights from a former UN Legal Counsel a former Executive Chairman of UNMOVIC present and former judges of the European Court of Justice the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea one present and one former member of the International Law Commission as well as law professors and practitioners from all Nordic countries Germany and Australia. Together they form a highly challenging mosaic of perspectives on topical issues like cluster munitions targeting human rights in peace operations and the purposes of sentencing in international tribunals. The volume also contains a bibliography and a presentation of Professor Bring's work.

Ghana Armed Forces in Lebanon and Liberia Peace Operations Emmanuel Wekem Kotia, 2015-04-22. Africa Nations have contributed to peace operations in conflict zones across the world since the deployment of the United Nations Operations in the Congo in 1960. This has placed Africa as a major stakeholder in the maintenance of peace and security. For over fifty years Ghana has earned the international reputation as one of the largest and consistent Troop Contributing Country in United Nations mandated peace operations. While Ghana has long been an active contributor to peace operations there are few or no comparative studies that systematically analyze the actual roles played by troops in many of the different conflict contexts where they have served. This book therefore focuses on a comparison of two peace operations undertaken by the forces of an African Nation in two different missions in Lebanon and Liberia. Best Practices for Human Rights and Humanitarian NGO Fact-Finding Gerald Steinberg, Anne Herzberg, Jordan Berman, 2012-03-02. This work outlines available resources and proposed standards for international NGO fact finding missions. Chapter One presents an introduction to the issue of NGO fact finding. Chapter Two discusses the problems caused by the lack of any generally accepted guidelines for NGO fact finding in contrast with contexts where NGOs have achieved consensus. Chapter Three surveys proposed guidelines for human rights and humanitarian NGOs. In addition this section examines United Nations fact finding standards as well as examples of internal fact finding standards for major NGOs. Chapter Four analyzes the fact finding standards used in five specific cases the International Crisis Group Kosovo 1999 the Independent International Fact Finding Mission on the Conflict
