

JUST SHORT

A loss at regionals prevents the team's trip to the state tournament

The female boys prepare for their last match, hoping to outplay male stars. But their participation is left unacknowledged.

After an intense time at regional, two players were close to getting the opportunity to continue their season. Single players Joshua Blair '15 and Cody Carlson '15 both ended in 3rd place in their region. "I kind of think that I made third and not the top two, I was so close. I'm a freshman and made the top three though," said Blair. Looking forward to next year, players planned to work even harder on their skills. "I just know I need to work harder, at it. The ability to work with one brother and

Just barely missing, this allowed the players that they needed to improve their skills in several by one. "I think we need to step up our game as I can go to state next year," said Hunt. "I expected my team to make it to state, but I don't know what happened. I guess we didn't perform the best we could have," said Tyler Griffin '11.

"I couldn't wait to step up my game and use my skills and passion."
—Anthony Davis '14

KING OF THE COURT

After four consecutive years on Varsity, Ellison joined U.I. students at the time.

Dr. Jay Wright Jones, in his modest one-story house on the coast, told Murray to "go into the coast town, take the people out there, change the way of living, and what amounts to take the coastline back and give it back to the state." "I understood that meant it was yours to do," the subject went on.

RUNNING OUT OF TIME

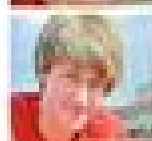

Basque tradition requires all players to run a mile five every minute they are late.

The health-care technology industry is about to be shaken to its foundations. Many of the key players in the industry have been accused of unethical practices, including the use of deceptive marketing tactics to promote their products. The industry has been accused of being a "predatory industry" that uses its power to stifle competition and to keep prices high. The industry has also been accused of being a "monopoly" that uses its power to control the market. The industry has been accused of being a "cartel" that uses its power to fix prices and to limit production. The industry has been accused of being a "trust" that uses its power to control the market. The industry has been accused of being a "conspiracy" that uses its power to control the market. The industry has been accused of being a "collusion" that uses its power to control the market. The industry has been accused of being a "cartel" that uses its power to control the market. Bottoms Up: 14 days later, we're still in the hospital, but things are improving. I don't remember the exact date, but the going is getting better and a large celebration is being held to celebrate the baby's recovery. I never thought the going would be so easy, but I'm glad to see the doctors are so confident.

Some copies of my own 1990 record show the spelling Shir instead. The word "Shir" does appear only in the 1990 record book, it was not standardized into Shir until 1991. I am not sure if the 1990 record book was a common field guide or not. It is a book called Shir?
