 Nalkur, 2015-10-23 The beauty of nature surrounds us but its beauty is often wasted as we rush through lives filled with work family and other responsibilities What if we were to slow down for a moment and take a look around What would we notice what would we learn Surely more than we could have imagined Poet Ajit Sripad Rao Nalkur admires the wilderness around him while living in southern India His words bridge the gap between the human world and the world of nature where small details speak volumes and inspire peace He writes not only of nature's majesty but also of our connection to it a connection we can choose to ignore or embrace In this collection an artist seeks and waits for his muse Little things bring great joy like a single wildflower or the serene power of silence Nalkur's words reach beyond the page and into the reader's innermost being challenging each of us to emotionally connect with nature These poems remind us all to slow down and admire the miracle revised edition of Ambrose Bierce's 1892 collection of Soldiers and Civilians tales fills a void in American literature. A veteran of the Civil War and a journalist known for his integrity and biting satire, Ambrose Bierce was also a lively short story writer of considerable depth and power. As San Francisco's most famous journalist during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, Bierce was hired by William Randolph Hearst to write a column for the San Francisco Examiner where his Soldiers and Civilians tales first appeared during the late 1880s. By the standards of his day and ours, Bierce's journalism was often brilliantly insightful, viciously libelous, petty and grand, frequently in the space of a single paragraph. This edition reveals the often compelling artistry of Bierce's original versions of the tales and the intentionally intricate design and scope of the original collection.
