Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage Frances A. Johnson, 2015-11-16 Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage examines key developments in the field of the Australian postcolonial historical novel from 1989 to the present In parallel with this analysis A Frances Johnson undertakes a unique study of in kind creativity reflecting on how her own nascent historical fiction has been critically and imaginatively shaped and inspired by seminal experiments in the genre by writers as diverse as Kate Grenville Mudrooroo Kim Scott Peter Carey Richard Flanagan and Rohan Wilson Mapping the postcolonial novel against the impact of postcolonial cultural theory and Australian writers intermittent embrace of literary postmodernism this survey is also read against the post millennial history and culture wars which saw politicizations of national debates around history and fierce contestation over the ways stories of Australian pasts have been written The Postcolonial Historical Novel H. Dalley, 2014-10-17

The Postcolonial Historical Novel is the first systematic work to examine how the historical novel has been transformed by its appropriation in postcolonial writing It proposes new ways to understand literary realism and explores how the relationship between history and fiction plays out in contemporary African and Australasian writing Ex Libris Michiko Kakutani, 2020-10-20 Pulitzer Prize winning literary critic Michiko Kakutani shares 100 personal thought provoking essays about books that have mattered to her and that help illuminate the world we live in today with beautiful illustrations throughout A book tailor-made for bibliophiles Oprah Winfrey An ebullient celebration of books and reading Publishers Weekly starred review In the introduction to her new collection of essays Ex Libris 100 Books to Read and Reread Michiko Kakutani writes In a world riven by political and social divisions literature can connect people across time zones and zip codes across cultures and religions national boundaries and historical eras It can give us an understanding of lives very different from our own and a sense of the shared joys and losses of human experience Readers will discover novels and memoirs by some of the most gifted writers working today favorite classics worth reading or rereading and nonfiction works both old and new that illuminate our social and political landscape and some of today's most pressing issues from climate change to medicine to the consequences of digital innovation There are essential works in American history The Federalist Papers The Writings and Speeches of Martin Luther King Jr books that address timely cultural dynamics Elizabeth Kolbert's The Sixth Extinction Daniel J Boorstin's The Image Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale classics of children's literature the Harry Potter novels Where the Wild Things Are and novels by acclaimed contemporary writers like Don DeLillo William Gibson Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Ian McEwan With richly detailed illustrations by lettering artist Dana Tanamachi that evoke vintage bookplates Ex Libris is an impassioned reminder of why reading matters more than ever After The Celebration Ken Gelder, Paul Salzman, 2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia's bicentenary to the end of the Howard government In this literary history Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts cultural social political historical national and transnational From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse Elizabeth Jolley Peter Carey Kim Scott Steven Carroll Kate Grenville Tim Winton Alexis Wright and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world The literary controversies over history identity feminism and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day Provocative and compelling After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities Marco Caracciolo, 2022-03 2024 Barbara Perkins and George Perkins Prize Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities investigates

how the experience of slowness in contemporary narrative practices can create a vision of interconnectedness between human communities and the nonhuman world Here slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a transformative experience for audiences of contemporary narratives engaging with the ecological crisis While climate change is a scientific abstraction the imagination of slowness turns it into a deeply embodied and affective experience Marco Caracciolo explores the value of slowness in dialogue with a wide range of narratives in various media from prose fiction to comic books to video games He argues that we need patience and an eye for complex patterns in order to recognize the multiple threads that link human communities and the slow moving processes of climate and geological history Decelerating attention offers important insight into human societies relations with the nonhuman materialities of Earth s physical landscapes ecosystems and atmosphere Caracciolo centers the experiential effects of narrative and offers a range of theoretically grounded readings that complement the formal language of narrative theory These close readings demonstrate that slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a thickening of attention that reveals the deeply multithreaded nature of reality The importance of this realization cannot be overstated through an investment in the here and now of experience slow narrative can help us manage the uncertainty of living in an era marked by dramatically shifting climate patterns Hope at Sea Teresa

Shewry,2015-09-16 As far back as Thomas More s Utopia and Francis Bacon s New Atlantis the Pacific Ocean has inspired literary creations of promising worlds Hope at Sea asks how literary writers have more recently conceived the future of ocean living In doing so it provides a new perspective on art and imagination in the face of enormous environmental change Drawing together ecocriticism theories of hope and literary analysis this book explores how literary writers evoke hope in engaging with environmental upheavals that are reshaping life in the Pacific Ocean Teresa Shewry considers contemporary poetry short stories novels art and journalistic pieces from Australia New Zealand Hawai i and other ocean sites examining their imaginative accounts of present life and future living in places where humans coexist with environmental loss rivers that no longer reach the sea dwindling populations of ocean life the effects of nuclear weapons testing and more These works are connected by their views of a future that includes hope Until now hope has never been theorized in a direct sustained way in ecocriticism Hope at Sea makes an argument for hope as a lens for creative and critical confrontation with environmental disruptions and the resulting sense of loss It also reflects on the critical approaches that hope as an analytic category opens up for the study of environmental literature With hope as a critical perspective Shewry develops a method for reading environmental literature literary writers create new ways to apprehend existing environmental realities and craft stories about seas forests cities and rivers that could be not as literal plans but as ways of imagining promising lives in the present world and in the world to come Judging a Book by Its Cover Nickianne Moody,2016-12-05 How do books attract their readers This collection takes a closer look at book covers and their role in promoting sales and shaping readers responses Judging a Book by Its Cover brings together leading scholars many with experience in the publishing industry who examine the marketing of popular fiction across the twentieth century and beyond Using case studies and grounding their discussions historically and methodologically the contributors address key themes in contemporary media literary publishing and business studies related to globalisation the correlation between text and image identity politics and reader reception Topics include book covers and the internet bookstore the links between books the music industry and film literary prizes and the selling of books subcultures and sales of young adult fiction the cover as a signifier of literary value and the marketing of ethnicity and lesbian pulp fiction This exciting collection opens a new field of enquiry for scholars of book history literature media and communication studies marketing and cultural studies Deleuzian Events Hanjo Berressem, Leyla

Haferkamp, 2009 Deleuzian Events Writing History brings together articles that deal with Gilles Deleuze's concept of the event many of them written by leading Deleuze scholars The eminently transdisciplinary collection relates the Deleuzian event to the larger cultural field addressing not only the philosophy of the event but also its history its politics and its presence in the arts Among the variety of topics are zeta physics modern dance and postcolonial history It is indispensable reading for anyone interested in how to make Deleuzian philosophy a productive force within contemporary life The Powers of the False Doro Wiese, 2014-11-30 Introduction The truth of narration and the powers of the false Accepting complicated legacies by being once removed from the world Everything is illuminated Foer 2002 He looked for truth in facts and not in stories crimes of historiography and forces of fabulation in Richard Flanagan's Gould's book of fish 2003 Making time undoing race Richard Powers The time of our singing 2003 Conclusion Climate and Crises Ben Holgate, 2019-01-31 Climate and Crises Magical Realism as Environmental Discourse makes a dual intervention in both world literature and ecocriticism by examining magical realism as an international style of writing that has long standing links with environmental literature The book argues that in the era of climate change when humans are facing the prospect of species extinction new ideas and new forms of expression are required to address what the novelist Amitav Gosh calls a crisis of imagination Magical realism enables writers to portray alternative intellectual paradigms ontologies and epistemologies that typically contest the scientific rationalism derived from the European Enlightenment and the exploitation of natural resources associated with both capitalism and imperialism Climate and Crises explores the overlaps between magical realism and environmental literature including their respective transgressive natures that dismantle binaries such as human and non human a shared biocentric perspective that focuses on the inter connectedness of all things in the universe and frequently a critique of postcolonial legacies in formerly colonised territories The book also challenges conventional conceptions of magical realism arguing they are often influenced by a geographic bias in the construction of the orthodox global canon and instead examines contemporary fiction from Asia including China and Australasia two regions that have been largely neglected by scholarship of the narrative mode As a result the monograph modifies and expands our ideas of what magical realist fiction is Richard Flanagan Robert Dixon, Ben Holgate, Joseph Cummins, Laura A. Richard Flanagan Critical Essays is the first book to be published about the life and work of this major world author Written by twelve leading critics from Australia Europe and North America these richly varied essays offer new ways of understanding Flanagan's contribution to Tasmanian Australian and world literature Flanagan's fictional worlds offer empathetic often poignant renderings of those whose voices have been lost beneath official accounts of history stories from a small region that have made their mark on a global scale Considering his seven novels as well as his non fiction journalism and correspondence this collection examines the historical and geographical factors that have shaped Flanagan's representation of Tasmanian identity This collection offers new insights into a determinedly regional writer and the impact he has had on a local national and global scale On Whiteness ,2020-05-18 The essays cover an astonishing range of subject matter from mental health and plastic surgery to literature music political philosophy performance popular culture and history They interrogate the dominance of whiteness exposing the underpinnings of white privilege and considering its global consequences Convicts Clare Anderson,2022-01-13 Clare Anderson provides a radical new reading of histories of empire and nation showing that the history of punishment is not connected solely to the emergence of prisons and penitentiaries but to histories of governance occupation and global connections across the world Exploring punitive mobility to islands colonies and remote inland and border regions over a period of five centuries she proposes a close and enduring connection between punishment governance repression and nation and empire building and reveals how states imperial powers and trading companies used convicts to satisfy various geo political and social ambitions Punitive mobility became intertwined with other forms of labour bondage including enslavement with convicts a key source of unfree labour that could be used to occupy territories Far from passive subjects however convicts manifested their agency in various forms including the extension of political ideology and cultural transfer and vital contributions to contemporary knowledge production

Geographers Hayden Lorimer, Charles W. J. Withers, 2015-12-14 Volume twenty nine of Geographers Biobibliographical Studies has as its subject matter seven essays covering British and French regionalists one of the world's leading cultural geographers a quantitative geographer turned historical geographer and student of geopolitics a pioneering medical geographer and a leading theoretician of geography's multiple engagements with the urban experience In their different ways and with reference to Australia Britain France Sweden and the United States of America all were products of and direct influences upon the emergence strength and thematic diversity of geography in the twentieth century Geographers 29 thus provides key insight into the shaping of a discipline and of its practitioners in modern context Deleuzian Fabulation and the Scars of History Ronald Bogue, 2010-07-05 The concept of fabulation makes a late appearance in Deleuze's career and in only limited detail but by tracing its connections to other concepts and situating them within Deleuze's general aesthetics Ronald Bogue develops a theory of fabulation which he proposes as the guiding principle of a Deleuzian approach to literary narrative Fabulation he argues entails becoming other experimenting on the real legending and inventing a people to come as well as an understanding of time informed by Deleuze's Chronos Aion distinction and his theory of the three passive syntheses of time In close readings of contemporary novels by Zakes Mda Arundhati Roy Roberto Bolano Assia Djebar and Richard Flanagan he demonstrates the usefulness of fabulation as a critical tool while exploring the problematic relationship between history and story telling which all five novelists adopt as a central thematic concern This is an original and exciting project by a highly respected specialist in the field The Memory of Genocide in Tasmania, 1803-2013 Jesse

Shipway, 2016-11-02 This book presents a philosophical history of Tasmania's past and present with a particular focus on the double stories of genocide and modernity On the one hand proponents of modernisation have sought to close the past off from the present concealing the demographic disaster behind less demanding historical narratives and politicised preoccupations such as convictism and environmentalism The second story meanwhile is told by anyone aboriginal or European who has gone to the archive and found the genocidal horrors hidden there This volume blends both stories It describes the dual logics of genocide and modernity in Tasmania and suggests that Tasmanians will not become more realistic about the future until they can admit a full recognition of the colonial genocide that destroyed an entire civilisation not much more than 200 years ago Catalogue of Law Books Published and for Sale by William Gould & Son, Law

Booksellers and Publishers. No. 68 State Street Anonymous, 2025-07-13 Reprint of the original first published in 1881 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Spaces of Danger Heather Merrill, Lisa M. Hoffman, 2015-12 These twelve original essays by geographers and anthropologists offer a deep critical understanding of Allan Pred's pathbreaking and eclectic cultural Marxist approach with a focus on his concept of situated ignorance the production and reproduction of power and inequality by regimes of truth through strategically deployed misinformation diversions and silences As the essays expose the cultural and material circumstances in which situated ignorance persists they also add a previously underexplored spatial dimension to Walter Benjamin's idea of moments of danger The volume invokes the aftermath of the July 2011 attacks by far right activist Anders Breivik in Norway who ambushed a Labor Party youth gathering and bombed a government building killing and injuring many Breivik had publicly and forthrightly declared war against an array of liberal attitudes he saw threatening Western civilization However as politicians and journalists interpreted these events for mass consumption a narrative quickly emerged that painted Breivik as a lone madman and steered the discourse away from analysis of the resurgent right wing racisms and nationalisms in which he was immersed The Breivik case is merely one of the most visible recent examples say editors Heather Merrill and Lisa Hoffman of the unchallenged production of knowledge in the public sphere In essays that range widely in topic and setting for example brownfield development in China a Holocaust memorial in Germany an art gallery exhibit in South Africa this volume peels back layers of situated practices and their associated meaning and power relations Spaces of Danger offers analytical and conceptual tools of a Predian approach to interrogate the taken for granted and make visible and legible that which is silenced
