

A composite image showing the process of making brownies. The top half features a rectangular metal pan on a wooden cutting board, filled with a thick, dark brown batter. A white spatula is being used to spread the batter, creating a marbled pattern. In the background, there are two small metal cups, one containing a dark liquid and the other a lighter liquid, and a white cloth tied with a yellow string. The bottom half of the image shows a round, light-colored plate with several square brownies. The brownies have a dark, fudgy interior and a smooth, dark chocolate glaze on top. The plate is resting on a wooden cutting board, and a large knife is visible in the foreground.
