at General and Credit levels The Sunlit Summit Robin Lloyd-Jones, 2013-08-15 William Hutchison Murray 1913 1996 was one of Scotland's most distinguished climbers in the years before and after the Second World War. As a prisoner of war in Italy, he wrote his first classic book Mountaineering in Scotland on rough toilet paper which was confiscated and destroyed by the Gestapo. The rewritten version was published in 1947 and followed by the now equally famous Undiscovered Scotland. In 1951, he was deputy leader to Eric Shipton on the Everest Reconnaissance Expedition which discovered the eventual successful route which would be climbed by Hillary and Tensing. From the 1960s onwards, he was heavily involved in conservation campaigns and his book Highland Landscape commissioned by the National Trust for Scotland identified areas of outstanding beauty that should be protected. It proved to be extremely influential. In 1966, he was awarded an OBE as he pursued a life of service as is well illustrated by the various posts he held: Commissioner for the Countryside Commission for Scotland 1968-1980, President of the Scottish Mountaineering Club 1962-1964 and of the Ramblers Association Scotland 1966-82, Chairman of Scottish Countryside Activities Council 1967-82, Vice President of the Alpine Club 1971-72, President of Mountaineering Council of Scotland 1972-75. He was a prolific author but a proper understanding of his life and work requires that we appreciate that his driving force was a quest to achieve inner purification that would lead him to oneness with Truth and Beauty. For many years, the climber, author and teacher Robin Lloyd Jones has been researching the life and work of Bill Murray and working steadily on this biography. It is not only a triumph of fine writing and interest but a worthy accolade for this great man.
