Humiliation Paulina Flores, 2019-11-05 Humiliation is a brilliant book that captures the volatility of misunderstandings the moment when failures matter less than the need to share them Alejandro Zambra author of Multiple Choice The nine mesmerizing stories in Humiliation translated from the Spanish by Man Booker International Prize finalist Megan McDowell present us with a Chile we seldom see in fiction port cities marked by poverty and brimming with plans of rebellion apartment buildings populated by dominant mothers and voyeuristic neighbors library steps that lead students to literature but also into encounters with other arts those of seduction self delusion sabotage In these pages a father walks through the scorching heat of Santiago's streets with his two daughters in tow Jobless and ashamed he takes them into a stranger's house a place that will become the site of the greatest humiliation of his life In an impoverished fishing town four teenage boys try to allay their boredom during an endless summer by translating lyrics from the Smiths into Spanish using a stolen dictionary Their dreams of fame and glory twist into a plan to steal musical instruments from a church an obsession that prevents one of them from anticipating a devastating ending Meanwhile a young woman goes home with a charismatic man after finding his daughter wandering lost in a public place She soon discovers like so many characters in this book that fortuitous encounters can be deceptions in disguise Themes of pride shame and disgrace small and large personal and public tie the stories in this collection together Humiliation becomes revelation as we watch Paulina Flores's characters move from an age of innocence into a world of conflicting sensations

May's Ride with Thunder Eve London,2024-05-15 He's the protector she didn't know she needed she's the love he never thought he deserved Ashley When the Savage Bones MC targets my family's ranch I'm desperate for help I turn to Thunder a much older member of the Mustang Mountain Riders and offer him the only thing I have When he turns me down I'm left questioning everything But as I find my place within the club's community I discover a strength I never knew I had and a desire I can't deny Thunder Ever since a career ending injury left me jaded I've kept my distance from love until Ashley walks into the clubhouse pleading for help Her vulnerability stirs my protective instincts and I quickly see beyond the damsel in distress to the resilient woman within As the Savage Bones close in I'm determined to keep Ashley safe but protecting my own heart might be the toughest challenge yet Welcome to Mustang Mountain where engines roar and loyalty reigns supreme Beneath the shadowy peaks of the mountain the Mustang Mountain Riders defend their ground against a dangerous gang trying to take over their small town Forged in fire and steel these bikers face threats head on riding hard and fighting even harder While they brave countless battles nothing prepares them for love sparked by the curvy women who steal their hearts

Writing West Virginia Boyd Creasman,2024-01-12 With their stirring depictions of a proud people striving for fulfillment in a land of natural beauty and economic hardship West Virginia authors have produced a body of work that is worthy of study and of celebration In Writing West Virginia Boyd Creasman examines the fiction and poetry of eight accomplished writers Davis Grubb Mary Lee Settle Breece D J Pancake Denise Giardina Irene McKinney Ann Pancake Jayne Anne Phillips and Pinckney Benedict who exemplify the rich but often overlooked literary heritage of the Mountain State Creasman identifies the varied ways in which these writers have grappled with the dynamics of place socioeconomic class and gender For Settle this expression has taken the form of historical novels chronicling the development of the state from its British settlement to the rise of the coal industry and the creation of a wealthy industrial class For other authors the struggle against poverty and lack of opportunity has been a central concern From the male protagonists of Grubb and Breece Pancake searching for ways to assert their masculinity when they cannot find gainful employment to the strong independent women of McKinney Giardina and Ann Pancake the characters in West Virginia literature have fought to transcend the challenges and limitations of living in the most Appalachian of states In the recent fiction of Phillips and Benedict elements of magical realism and fantasy are employed to create the possibility of transcendence for their characters shifting the focus from landscape to dreamscape and thereby suggesting exciting new directions for Appalachian literature Despite the remarkable talent of these writers only a handful of book length critical studies have focused on them and none have considered them as a group Writing West Virginia helps fill this gap in literary scholarship while opening up new paths for further exploration Boyd Creasman is a professor of English and vice president for academic affairs at West Virginia Wesleyan College where he won a number of teaching awards and taught Appalachian literature for fifteen years He has published scholarly articles in journals such as Studies in Humanities Studies in Short Fiction and Appalachian Journal
