RadioShack Reports New Losses

This week, RadioShack reported greater-than-expected quarterly losses, in addition to the departure of their current financial chief. These events are only the latest in a series of signs that the company needs a new direction. RadioShack, once one of the most popular electronics retailers, has seen steady losses throughout the past decades with the rise of online shopping and competitors like Best Buy. Their newly appointed CEO, Joe Magnacca, was hired with the hope that he could transform the public perception of the company.

Race-Baiter: How the Media Wields Dangerous Words to Divide a Nation Eric Deggans,2012-10-30 Gone is the era of Edward R Murrow and Walter Cronkite when news programs fought to gain the trust and respect of a wide spectrum of American viewers Today the fastest growing news programs and media platforms are fighting hard for increasingly narrow segments of the public and playing on old prejudices and deep rooted fears coloring the conversation in the blogosphere and the cable news chatter to distract from the true issues at stake Using the same tactics once used to mobilize political parties and committed voters they send their fans coded messages and demonize opposing groups in the process securing valuable audience share and website traffic Race baiter is a term born out of this tumultuous climate coined by the conservative media to describe a person who uses racial tensions to arouse the passion and ire of a particular demographic Even as the election of the first black president forces us all to reevaluate how we think about race gender culture and class lines some areas of modern media are working hard to push the same old buttons of conflict and division for new purposes In Race Baiter veteran journalist and media critic Eric Deggans dissects the powerful ways modern media feeds fears prejudices and hate while also tracing the history of the word and its consequences intended or otherwise

Terrorism and the Politics of Fear David L. Altheide,2006-04-24 In this powerful new book sociologist David L Altheide demonstrates how the mass media constructs a politics of fear in America He argues that politicians and decision makers bear much of the blame for the promotion of fear among citizens resulting in the loss of civil liberties in return for greater protection From a social interactionist perspective Altheide presents his thesis that fear as entertainment informs the production of popular culture and news generates profits enables political decision makers to cynically manipulate citizens and can lead to major institutional changes even war The author dissects in turn a modern propaganda campaign in the justification of the invasion of Iraq to the American people the expansion of control and surveillance on the Internet and the construction of a hero fighting terrorism to promote patriotism in the story of a promising young Arizona sports hero Pat Tillman who joined the Army and was killed by his fellow Rangers in Afghanistan This thoughtful treatment of a timely subject will be indispensable to teachers and students of sociology media politics and criminology studies
