Dan Duryea Mike Peros,2016-10-11 Dan Duryea 1907 1968 made a vivid impression on moviegoers with his first major screen appearance as the conniving Leo Hubbard in 1941's classic melodrama The Little Foxes His subsequent film and television career would span from 1941 until his death Duryea remains best known for the nasty scheming villains he portrayed in such noir masterpieces as Scarlet Street Criss Cross and The Woman in the Window In each of these he wielded a blend of menace sleaze confidence and surface charm This winning combination led him to stardom and garnered him the adoration of female fans even though Duryea's onscreen brutality so often targeted female characters Yet this biography's close examination of Duryea's oeuvre finds him excelling in various roles in many genres war films westerns crime dramas and even the occasional comedy Dan Duryea Heel with a Heart is a full scale comprehensive biography that examines the tension between Duryea's villainous screen image and his Samaritan personal life At home he proved to be one of Hollywood's most honorable and decent men Duryea remained married to the former Helen Bryan from 1931 until her death in 1967 A dedicated family man he and Helen took an active role in raising their children and in the community In his career Duryea knew villainous roles were what the public wanted there would be a public backlash if fans read an article depicting what a decent guy he was Frustrated that he couldn't completely shake his screen image and public persona he wrestled with this restriction throughout his career Producers and the public did not care to follow any new directions he hoped to pursue This book written with Duryea's surviving son Richard's cooperation fully explores the life and legacy of a Hollywood icon ready for rediscovery

Browning, Victorian Poetics and the Romantic Legacy Dr Britta Martens, 2013-05-28 Taking an original approach to Robert Browning s poetics Britta Martens focuses on a corpus of relatively neglected poems in Browning s own voice in which he reflects on his poetry his self conceptualization and his place in the poetic tradition She analyzes his work in relation to Romanticism Victorian reactions to the Romantic legacy and wider nineteenth century changes in poetic taste to argue that in these poems as in his more frequently studied dramatic monologues Browning deploys varied dramatic methods of self representation often critically and ironically exposing the biases and limitations of the seemingly authoritative speaker Browning The poems thus become devices for Browning s detached evaluation of his own and of others poetics an evaluation never fully explicit but presented with elusive economy for the astute reader to interpret The confrontation between the personal authorial voice and the dramatic voice in these poems provides revealing insights into the poet s highly self conscious conflicted and sustained engagement with the Romantic tradition and the diversely challenging reader expectations that he faces in a post Romantic age As the Victorian most rigorous in his rejection of

Romantic self expression Browning is a key transitional figure between the sharply antagonistic periods of Romanticism and Modernism He is also as Martens persuasively demonstrates a poet of complex contradictions and an illuminating case study for addressing the perennial issues of voice authorial authority and self reference The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1926 A Romantic Education Patricia Hampl,1999 This now classic memoir recounting the times when Hampl traveled to Prague in search of her Czech heritage is available again Includes an updated Afterword by the author
