Theatre & War Nandita Dinesh, 2019-07-05 In Theatre she describes various projects that she has undertaken on the ground she theorizes strategies that might be useful to other practitioner researchers who are involved in similar work In this sequel of sorts Dinesh chooses to return to the same themes of theatre of war But this time she intentionally crafts her notes from afar From somewhere outside the field From somewhere outside the practice And yet a somewhere that is consumed by the field And the practice Through writing that seeks to do through writing that seeks to perform Dinesh use different voices in this book Voices that come from more traditional archival sources which are then re conceptualized as drama Voices that come from sources that occupy the space between archived and lived experience which are then shaped into creative vignettes Voices that come from Dinesh s repertoire her own lived experiences that are then crafted as flash fiction about past present future collaborators By weaving together variously positioned experiences and voices through creative re interpretations Theatre it is also a book that could be performed
