Licircle Aux Femmes:

Maria Edgeworth and Her Circle in the Days of Buonaparte and Bourbon Constance Hill, 1910 Ovid in French Helena Taylor, Fiona Cox, 2023 This collection of essays examines the ways Ovid's diverse oeuvre has been translated rewritten adapted and responded to by a range of French and Francophone women from the Renaissance to the present It aims to reveal lesser known voices in Ovidian reception studies and to offer a wider historical perspective on the complex question of Ovid and gender Ranging from Renaissance poetry to contemporary creative criticism it charts an understudied strand of reception studies emphasizing how a longer view allows us to explore and challenge the notion of a female tradition of Ovidian reception The range of genres analysed here poetry verse and prose translation theatre epistolary fiction autofiction autobiography film creative critique and novels also reflect the diversity of the Ovidian texts in reception from the Heroides to the Metamorphoses from the Amores to the Ars Amatoria from the Tristia to the Fasti The study brings an array of critical approaches to bear on well known authors such as George Sand Julia Kristeva and Marguerite Yourcenar as well as less known figures from contemporary writer Linda L to the early modern Catherine and Madeline Des Roches exploring exile identity queerness displacement voice expectations of modesty the poetics of translation and the problems posed by Ovid's eroticized violence to name just some of the volume's rich themes The epilogue by translator and novelist Marie Cosnay points towards new eco critical and creative directions in Ovidian scholarship and reception Students and scholars of French Studies Classics Comparative Literature and Translation Studies will find much to interest them in this diverse collection of essays Jus Suffragii, 1915 Going Public Elizabeth C. Goldsmith, Dena Goodman, 1995 Exploring the ways in which French women went public through publication this book shows how they contributed to the formation of the public sphere in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Going Public also takes the critical literature on the woman writer to a new level by examining the implications of print publicity The contributors investigate the intersection of gender and publicity in a wide range of printed texts from memoirs and legal briefs to novels poems and fairy tales In doing so they reveal much about why individual women drawn from the whole spectrum of society embraced the medium of print and about the impact this form of publicity had on their lives Women's Studies Quarterly (28: 3-4) Nancy Hoffman, Nitza Hidalgo, Ellen Silber, 2000 Groundbreaking volume provides positive strategies for eliminating gender bias in middle school and high school classrooms Women Artists in Paris, 1850-1900 Laurence Madeline, Pauline Willis, 2017-01-01 Paris was the epicenter of art during the latter half of the nineteenth century luring artists from around the world with its academies museums salons and galleries Despite the city's cosmopolitanism and its cultural stature Parisian society remained strikingly conservative particularly with respect to gender Nonetheless many women painters chose to work and study in Paris at this time overcoming immense obstacles to access the city's resources Women Artists in Paris 1850-1900 showcases the remarkable artistic production of women during this period of great cultural change revealing the breadth and strength of their creative achievements Guest Curator Laurence Madeline Chief Curator at Mus es d art et d histoire Geneva has selected close to seventy compelling paintings by women of varied nationalities ranging from well known artists such as Berthe Morisot Mary Cassatt and Rosa Bonheur to lesser known figures such as Kitty Kielland Louise Breslau and Anna Ancher The Creative Circle African Literature Association. Meeting, African Literature Association, 2003 The theme of the 2001 African Literature Association conference translation encompasses more than the movement of expression from one language to another it not only includes the translation of one culture to another but also the translating of the particularities of historical and personal experience into the broader context of humanity Includes the four addresses given at the conference on this topic by Nadine Gordimer Assia Djebar Emmanuel Dongala and Nuruddin Farah Women and the Book Trade in Sixteenth-Century France Susan Broomhall, 2018-11-07 Focusing on the vastly understudied area of how women participated in the book trades not just as authors but also as patrons copyists illuminators publishers editors and readers Women and the Book Trade in Sixteenth Century France foregrounds contributions made by women during a period of profound transformation in the modes and understanding of publication Broomhall asks whether women s experiences as authors changed when manuscript circulation gave way to the printed book as a standard form of publication Innovatively she broadens the concept of publication to include methods of scribal publication through the circulation and presentation of manuscripts and expands notions of authorship to incorporate a wide sample group of female writers and publishing experiences She challenges the existing view that manuscript offered a safe means of semi public exposure for female authors and explores its continuing presence after the introduction of print The study introduces a wide and rich range of unexamined sources on early modern women using an extensive range of manuscripts and the entire corpus of women s printed texts in sixteenth century France Most of the original texts uncovered during the author s own extensive archival and bibliographical research have never been re published in modern French Most of the citations from them are here translated into English for the first time The work presents the only checklist of all known women s writings in printed texts from prefaces and laudatory verse to editions of prose and poetry between 1488 and 1599 Women and the Book Trade in Sixteenth Century France constitutes the most comprehensive assessment of women s contribution to contemporary publishing yet available Broomhall s innovative approach and her conclusions have relevance not only for book historians and French historians but for a broad range of scholars who work with other European literatures and histories as well as women s studies Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell, Robert S. Littell, 1858 Mystic Circle Burnaby Art Gallery, 1973 Sensible Etiquette of the Best Society, Customs, Manners, Morals, and Home Culture Mrs. Bloomfield H. Moore, 1878 Advice on proper etiquette regarding parties social visits fashion etc revealing the complexity of the social rules in Victorian America Women and the City in French Literature and Culture Siobhán McIlvanney, Gillian Ni Cheallaigh, 2019-05-15 Interdisciplinarity this book covers a range of media and genres from cinema to journalism to novels and a range of disciplines from feminism film studies

Francophone studies history etc which allows readers to access a particularly extensive range of disciplines within one volume and to make informed comparisons Transhistoricism the chronological range of essays included in this journal from the medieval period through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the present demonstrates that women have always managed to access their own territory within the masculinised urban environment and this encourages readers to rethink previous gendered assumptions about women and the city Feminism the essays here form part of the wider movement in academic research to redress the gendered imbalance of perspectives on a range of subjects here allowing us to look anew at French and Francophone culture and history as part of this feminist rewriting

Biblical Women in Contemporary Novels in English Ingrid Bertrand, 2020-02-10 How are well known female characters from the Bible represented in late 20th century novels In Biblical Women in Contemporary Novels in English Ingrid Bertrand presents a detailed analysis of biblical rewritings by Roberts Atwood Tennant Diamant and Diski focusing on six different women Eve Noah s wife Sarah Bilhah Dinah and Mary Magdalene She shows how these heroines give themselves a voice that rests not only on words but also on silences Exploring the many forms that silence can take she presents an innovative typology that sheds new light on this profoundly meaningful phenomenon

The Widening Circle Paul J. Korshin, 2016-11-11 Three distinguished authorities offer informed reflections on the history of books on literary commerce and on the reading public in eighteenth century England France and Germany Concerned with an area of study that has gone largely unexplored the social function of the book trade and the various agencies of distribution Robert Darnton Roy M Wiles and Bernhard Fabian lay the groundwork for the intellectual social and literary historian as well as the student of political revolutions Robert Darnton s rich account of a clandestine book dealer expands our knowledge of the actual habits of eighteenth century Frenchmen We learn about the livres philosophiques as they were known in the trade obscene irrereligious or seditious works about the intricate circuit of agents linking publisher and bookdealer and about a confidence game often surviving on sheer bravura Darnton not only gives us a general sense of the literary tastes in a small provincial city in France on the eve of the Revolution but also opens the way toward an understanding of the country s entire literary underground The late Roy M Wiles investigates the principal readership in eighteenth century England and demonstrates that intellectual activities were not confined to polite society in London Employing new often untouched materials newspaper circulation and delivery figures book lists and advertisements in London and local papers subscription books in provincial towns and cities Wiles helps dispel some of the uncertainty surrounding the question of literacy and shows that in fact what the provincial readers chose to read more accurately registers the eighteenth century s relish for reading than those books considered by Londoners as required reading Bernhard Fabian explores the sources that permit us to assess the circulation of English letters in Germany during the second half of the eighteenth century By considering the kind of information obtained from subscription lists by studying the relation of English literature to the general reader of the period and by examining the emergence of a reading public that actually read

English Fabian helps delineate a broad view of the contemporary reading scene in eighteenth century Germany Littell's Living Age ,1858 A Woman Who Defends All the Persons of Her Sex Gabrielle Suchon,2010-05-15 During the oppressive reign of Louis XIV Gabrielle Suchon 1632 1703 was the most forceful female voice in France advocating women s freedom and self determination access to knowledge and assertion of authority This volume collects Suchon s writing from two works Treatise on Ethics and Politics 1693 and On the Celibate Life Freely Chosen or Life without Commitments 1700 and demonstrates her to be an original philosophical and moral thinker and writer Suchon argues that both women and men have inherently similar intellectual corporeal and spiritual capacities which entitle them equally to essentially human prerogatives and she displays her breadth of knowledge as she harnesses evidence from biblical classical patristic and contemporary secular sources to bolster her claim Forgotten over the centuries these writings have been gaining increasing attention from feminist historians students of philosophy and scholars of seventeenth century French literature and culture This translation from Domna C Stanton and Rebecca M Wilkin marks the first time these works will appear in English
