Aging, 1951

Retirement Peter K. Rimbach, 2011-08 Retirement is certainly not a new concept In our Western Societies it the way most individuals plan to spend the last third of their lives Depending on how financially and emotionally well prepared one is this period in one's life can provide rich and rewarding experiences On the other hand there are dark mysteries in these years that have been largely ignored However Society is beginning to learn that for most people especially but not exclusively men are psychologically unprepared for what they are finding in these latter years in their lives What's more the problems that arise when a man retires are totally unexpected much less easily addressed In some cases not treating these psychological issues leads to divorce alcoholism or in severe cases suicide This is why I call this period the Mr Everest on life What's worse the psychological community that has taken on the challenge to protect society from situations like this has all but ignored that there is any problem I find this both shocking and unconscious able Up to now the Third Age transition hasn't caused too many severe problems However between January 1st 2011 and 2030 seventy million of the Baby Boomer generation some ten thousand per day will have turned sixty five This will do precisely to the Third Age what the same cohort did to the earlier ages reframe the dialogue Retirees both women and men must take heed to this issue that will literally change their lives

Beyond Price J. David Velleman, 2015-10-08 In nine lively essays bioethicist J David Velleman challenges the prevailing consensus about assisted suicide and reproductive technology articulating an original approach to the ethics of creating and ending human lives He argues that assistance in dying is appropriate only at the point where talk of suicide is not and he raises moral objections to anonymous donor conception In their place Velleman champions a morality of valuing personhood over happiness in making end of life decisions and respecting the personhood of future children in making decisions about procreation These controversial views are defended with philosophical rigor while remaining accessible to the general reader Written over Velleman's 30 years of undergraduate teaching in bioethics the essays have never before been collected and made available to a non academic audience They will open new lines of debate on issues of intense public interest A Popular treatise on diseases of the heart, apoplexy, dyspepsia, and other chronic diseases Samuel Sheldon Fitch, 1859 2020 Vision Stan Davis, William Harley Davidson, 1991 Information management and biotechnology are reshaping the basic structure of American enterprise In this bold and innovative analysis Davis and Davidson explain what these changes mean and how entrepreneurs and executives can prepare for the challenges of tomorrow An Accidental Philanthropist Winsome Dunn McIntosh, Howard E. Covington Jr., 2025-08-06 This is the story of how a chance encounter led to romance marriage and a partnership covering a half century of creative philanthropy by Michael and Winsome Dunn McIntosh In the 1970s they began using an unexpected inheritance to expand the protection of America's natural resources through life giving early support to the Natural Resources Defense Council and the Sierra Club's legal arm On numerous occasions they demonstrated how a small foundation can have an outsized impact in the United States and abroad where a dynamic non profit they founded London based ClientEarth carries forward legal protections for the environment around the world At 80 years of age Winsome continues to promote the role of women in philanthropy and their place in the management of non profit organizations Who Said That First? Max Cryer, 2011-03-25 Believe it or not this is probably the first book to attempt to identify the original sources of some of the English language's most common expressions We might think we know who first said famous for fifteen minutes annus horribilis the cold war and let them eat cake It's a no brainer you might say but Max Cryer has a surprise or two in Let's Chat Renee Richter, 2019-12-31 When we become Christians we all learn to pray We learn that when we pray we're addressing the Almighty God who sits enthroned in glory and power accordingly we must approach Him with respect and honor But what if there is more to prayer than that What if God can also be a dear friend who wants to hear about the highs and lows of our regular lives What if the God who breathed out the galaxies just wants to chat with you Let's Chat introduces the Jesus who wants to be a part of your everyday life in a personal intimate way Speaker and discipleship leader Renee Richter presents a thirty day journey toward learning a new sort of prayer one in which you can experience friendship with Jesus She draws from her own personal testimony and from the stories of biblical heroes to show how prayer can be radically more than you ever imagined it These thirty days could change your prayers and your life Psychotherapy Marie-Louise von Franz, 2001-05-01 An insightful exploration of the tenets of psychotherapy from lauded Jungian psychologist Marie Louise von Franz In twelve essays eight of which appear here in English for the first time the internationally known analyst Marie Louise von Franz explores important aspects of psychotherapy from a Jungian perspective She draws on her many years of practical experience in psychotherapy her intimate knowledge of Jung s methods and theories and her wide ranging interests in fields such as mythology alchemy science and religion to illumine these varied topics Projection Transference Dream interpretation Self realization Group psychology Personality types Active imagination The therapeutic use of hallucinogenic drugs The choice of psychotherapy as a profession The role of religious experience in psychological healing
