Life Is A Scream:

A Scream Goes Through the House Arnold Weinstein, 2007-12-18 For too long we have been encouraged to see culture as an affair of intellect and reading as a solitary exercise But the truth is different literature and art are pathways of feeling and our encounter with them is social inscribing us in a larger community Through art we discover that we are not alone So writes the esteemed Brown University professor Arnold Weinstein in this brilliant radical exploration of Western literature In the tradition of Harold Bloom and Jacques Barzun Weinstein guides us through great works of art to reveal how literature constitutes nothing less than a feast for the heart Our encounter with literature and art can be a unique form of human connection an entry into the storehouse of feeling Writing about works by Sophocles Shakespeare Dickens Charlotte Brontë Munch Proust O Neill Burroughs DeLillo Tony Kushner Toni Morrison and others Weinstein explores how writers and artists give us a vision of what human life is really all about Reading is an affair of the heart as well as of the mind deepening our sense of the fundamental forces and emotions that govern our lives including fear pain illness loss depression death and love Provocative beautifully written essential A Scream Goes Through the House traces the human cry that echoes in literature through the ages demonstrating how intense feelings are heard and shared With intellectual insight and emotional acumen Weinstein reveals how the scream that resounds through the house of literature history the body and the family shows us who we really are and joins us together in a vast and timeless community

Cody Coffey, 2009-11

I wrote this book because I feel there is a reason for all that is going on in the world a cauldron of misery suffering anguish and strife. Everyone is caught up in it and those who feel they are not or feel they have an educated reason and philosophy for what they see are not seeing the bigger picture. Most people come up with the biggest most elaborate questions and answers but most do not tap into another reason or meaning for what life is about and what is transpiring. What if there is a very deeper meaning deeper purpose besides the basic fundamentals of life that we know of and our purpose here? What if everything we say do and think about are just conforming to our own selfish reasons? I am trying to put forth the argument of what the real reasons are. The answers so many accept and try to figure out based on nothing else but the theoretical speculation and trial and error. The most brilliant minds in the world the most compelling arguments explanations and theories have played and still play a major role into where we are where we are going and what we have reduced ourselves to. While many may look to rationalize an incoherent world with rational thought many are ignoring what could be a devastating calamity taken place right under our noses Something so subtle that it is less resound then a feather hitting the ground half way around the world yet would have the impact to wipe out humanity or create hell on earth As I See It Cody Coffey,2010-03 People will be interested in this book because it offers insight and a different look at the cycle of life and death and why they are never ending The who what where and why are just fill ins for the curious but logical questions and answers that we ponder as humans I hope to take it further by examining the meaning behind the meaning The possibilities and the consequences of ignoring the very basis of not just life but the survival of humanity that we are not here by some kind of accident in the cosmos What happens and transpires when people no longer feel a purpose to life and this feeling causes an insurrection and destruction of one s soul where not only do they lash out at each other they eventually despise themselves This issue is what happens in the absence of God in one s life and how the soul starves while the flesh feasts in misery and selfishness The absence of purpose which is a greater good God causes a systematic breakdown where the tentacles of misery and chaos run wild as one adopts the mentality of every man women and child The more selfish people become the less they care about those further and further away from their personal space to the point where they do not care about their own country their own state community right up to their own backyard As evil advances the faithless retreat one grows more and more selfish in the absence of God Good and evil right and wrong become meshed together and a veil of gray causes one unable to discern between the two
